

Sigma Chis Meet Future Sweetheart

Sigma Chi members will meet contestants in the 1946 Sigma Chi Sweetheart contest at a dance to be given at the fraternity house tonight, Augie Johnson, social chairman, announced today. The names of semi-finalists will be released Friday.

A total of 49 girls, representing each women's living house on the campus, are entered in the competition to decide the Sigma Chi sweetheart of 1946. This year's winner will be announced over station KORE on October 23.

University Professors To Attend Salem Meet

Dean J. R. Jewell, dean of the education school, reported today that plans had been made for attendance at the annual school superintendents meetings in Salem. The meetings are scheduled for October 14 and 15. A county superintendents convention also is planned, and is being held October 15 and 16.

Dean Jewell; Dr. C. L. Huffaker, professor of education; Dr. Paul E. Kambly, assistant director of teacher training; Professor F. L. Stetson, professor of secondary education; and Dr. Hugh B. Wood, professor of education, are attending.

ROTC Increases Staff

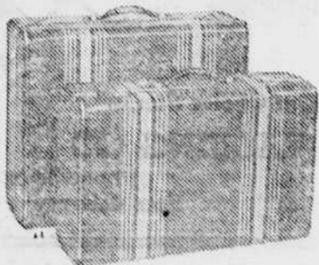

An additional infantry officer, Captain Richard B. Roche of Burlingame, Calif., has been assigned to the teaching staff of the military science department, and is expected to arrive at the University, October 19. Captain Roche's previous duty was with the national headquarters of the army emergency relief.
