

China Institute Sends Request

A letter from the China Institute in New York City, requesting information on the Chinese students registered here, has been received in the registrar's office, C. L. Constance, associate registrar, disclosed Tuesday.

The information is necessary for a directory of Chinese students and trainees in America on which the Institute is working, and which will be published around November of this year, the letter stated.

As the letters did not arrive in time for the material to be obtained during registration, Mr. Constance requests that all Chinese students on campus pick up a form postcard from the registrar's office, fill it out, and drop it in the mail box at their earliest convenience.

SIDE PATER
By Bob Whitely

A recent Emerald blurb pleaded for students to work "behind the scenes" with the Rally Committee. "After," as a new Second John would report, "thoroughly checking the area," you may put up your scenes at will Mr. Hazzard. Be sure to anchor them solidly in cement. We found Sahib Schaefer, chief Babu of the local opium den bitterly sobbing over his surplus Army China Clipper. When questioned, "Honest" John brushed away a tear, and with controlled grief exclaimed, "My fat has been cut off!" He assured us however that every effort is being made to increase his small pittance so that those super-Side dunkers will again roll out of his infernal machine. "You'll have to be content with boughten ones," he tersely informed us. You may go back to your pots now John. Speaking of the game this Sat, be sure and get your pompom from the eager Qwama's anytime before the struggle. They'll give you a beeyooootiful job for less than a Peso (.50 in gold). See you Tuesday on the Ballboard shift.

Die-Hard

We don't know if his name is Ernest, but it should be if it isn't. If a gal turns this lad down on the idea of a coffee date he dashes down to the closest java house and brings back a slug of the brown stuff to the lucky girl. Suggest that the gal try turning him down for a dinner date.

The Theta Chis stepped out and reserved El Capitan for Homecoming. With drinks at ten cents a throw it should prove to be a gay time.

If anyone on the campus knows a good detective please have him available next Sunday as he will be urgently needed.

UW Offers Scholarship For Far Eastern Study

Opportunities to study culture in China are being offered by the Far Eastern department of the University of Washington.

The scholarships are open to all students except those of Chinese nationality, who have shown merit in at least one year's study in Chinese language, history, literature, art, geography, or social sciences in relation to China; or who have contributed writings adjudged to be of value on any of these subjects.

Scholarships will be for one year. Applications should be sent to Dr. Franz H. Michael, Far Eastern department, Seattle 5, Washington.

Museum Hours Named

In honor of Homecoming the art museum will be open on Friday, October 18, from 3 to 5 p.m. and Saturday, October 19 from 9 a.m. to noon.
