

KOAC Debuts Campus Show

The campus program to be produced over KOAC, state-owned radio station, from 8 until 9 p.m. Monday has been announced by Marvin Krenk, production manager.

Victor P. Morris, dean of the school of business administration, will present his regular program, "World in Review," at 8.

This will be followed at 8:15 by the campus recital featuring Norma Green, soprano, with Virginia Lindley, accompanist. The songs will be: "Ah, Jeveuve Vivre," Gounod; "Ouvre Tes Yeaux Bleu," Massenet; "Les Benceaux," Eauré; and "Le Charm," Chanson.

Phyllis Perkins, contralto, accompanied by Lois Beamgaard, will complete the recital beginning at 8:30. She will sing "Dream of Love," Liszt; "A Song To Remember," Chopin; "Yours Is My Heart Alone," Lehar; "Pale Hands," Finden; "A Kiss in the Dark," Herbert; "Symphony," Friml; and "At Dawning," Cadman. The recital and Dean Morris' program will be produced by Gordon Halsted.

A world symposium on the long-term effect of the Nuernburg trials will complete the program. Students participating are: Ted Goodwin narrator, Marilyn Sage, George Kikes, and George Pegg.

Sceptic Hour Slated

(Continued from page one) pal Church, Karl Morgan Block, the Rev. Vere Loper, pastor of the First Congregational church of Berkeley, Calif., whose lectures in the University of California on "Sex and Marriage" were recently described in the Readers Digest; and Buell Gallagher, professor in the Pacific School of Religion in Berkeley, who has written a book on racial relations, acclaimed in reviews as excellent.

Campus Cuties

(Continued from page one) for Mortar Board, senior women's honorary, Martha is vice-president of the YWCA.

Five feet seven inches tall, Martha has long brown hair and blue eyes.

Student No Dummy; Ventriloquism Pays

Because he gave an outstanding ventriloquism performance with his dummy, Elmer, before the Eugene Active club Wednesday night, Ted Taylor, Vets dorm, received an on-the-spot contract offer at $250 a week from C. H. Sutherlin, advance agent for Pollack Bros. circus.

Sutherlin, who started Edgar Bergen on his rise to fame 11 years ago, declared that Taylor has great possibilities far beyond anything he has ever seen, that he has a better stage manner and technique than Bergen had, and only needs more schooling to perfect his style.

When reached for a statement, Taylor said, "Up to this minute, I don't know if I would accept or not." He explained that it would be difficult to start school again if he should quit now, as the proposed contract would run for 42 weeks. Confirmation of the contract by I. J. Pollack is being awaited now.

Sutherlin was an honorary guest of the Active club, local businessman's group, on the evening when the young ventriloquist performed. According to Ray Siegenthaler, Active secretary, the circus agent made his spontaneous offer immediately following the show.

Lutherans to Gather With Friends Sunday

Sunday at 5:30 p.m. the Alpha Beta chapter of Gamma Delta, Lutheran student group will meet in the parlors of the Grace Lutheran church, 11th and Ferry.

A short business meeting will be held followed by election of officers. Refreshments will be served. All Lutheran students and their friends are invited.

Sororities Pledge Two

Pledged by sororities during the first week of open rushing were: Delta Gamma, Patricia Jean Folsom; and Kappa Alpha Theta, Carol Chambers, according to an announcement Friday by Billy John, Panhellenic president. Girls who wish to add their names to the rush list should submit their names at the dean of women's office.

Sigma Chi Names 20 Semi-Finalists

Semi-finalists in the Sigma Chi sweetheart contest were announced today by Augie Johnson, Sigma Chi social chairman. The 20 girls will be invited to a dinner and dance at the fraternity house next Tuesday, at which time five finalists will be selected.

The semi-finalists are Gloria Bates, Alpha Chi Omega; Margie Harrison, Alpha Delta Pi; Dorothy Chapman, Alpha Omicron Pi; Pan Newton, Chi Omega; Carolyn Eagleson and Janis Reid, Delta Gamma; Joan Hoppe, Gamma Phi Beta; Carol Handeline and Diane Krieske, Hendricks hall.

Joan LaRue and Donna Pondstone, Kappa Alpha Theta; Julanne Chevrier and Lloyd Hough, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Sally Mueller and Janet Hart, Pi Beta Phi; Jo Jarvis, Rebec house; Peggy Dougherty, Susan Campbell hall; Marie Lombard and Marguerite Reardon, Tri Delt; and Lucretia Prentiss, Gamma hall.

Vets Forum

By JOHN JENSEN and DALE HARLAN

Merville J. Thompson, veteran training officer, wants the following men to contact him at the VA guidance center in the physical education building: Byron Mayo, Abraham P. Perlstein, Douglas C. Durkoop, Dean P. Sheldon, William W. Himler, Robert H. Halsebo, Horace Kirk, Daniel Ducich, and Keith Fann.

The following magazines are available to veterans for a limited time at reduced rates for one year. Savings vary from $2 to $4: The Reader's Digest, Life, Time, Fortune, and Newsweek.

Former rank and serial number must be included and full remittance sent with the order to: Reader's Digest Community Service, 5727 Maryland Avenue, Chicago 37, Illinois.

ROTC Air Chief Takes New Post

Major R. V. Archuleta, assigned to head the new air corps training program, arrived in Eugene Thursday to join the official family of campus ROTC instructors.

Along with his new job Major Archuleta brings a new title to the University faculty. As professor of air science and tactics he takes over a position formerly non-existent in the military science department.

Before his latest assignment the major was group air inspector at Brooks Field, San Antonio.

Major Archuleta comes to the University at his own request, having become acquainted with Eugene during wartime flights to Portland from California. His only previous connection with ROTC was as a student at New Mexico A & M.

Mrs. Archuleta accompanied her husband here.

Westminster House Social Set for Sunday

Sunday morning at 9:30, Westminster house is sponsoring a breakfast for all students. Immediately after breakfast Dr. J. Harris, religious emphasis director for Westminster, will speak on the subject, "Church and the State."

The social hour, when light refreshments are served, will be at 6 p.m.

"The World Today" will be discussed by Dr. D. L. Adler of the psychology department during the evening meeting at 6:30. Monday Westminster will hold a fireside sing from 9:30 to 10:15 p.m. All students are invited to attend and join in the fellowship.

Oregon Law Review

(Continued from page one)

published in the last issue of the Review. She is a member of Phi Beta Kappa, scholastic honorary, and is secretary-treasurer of the law school and has served on the University judiciary committee for two years.

Wiener had published a recent case note before leaving to serve in the army intelligence. He is also a member of Phi Delta Phi.

Returning to Oregon after serving as a captain in the AAF, Norville is also a member of Phi Delta Phi. He also had a note and comment published before entering the service.

The Law Review is published four times a college year and is devoted to comment and constructive criticism of recent cases and problems of law worthy of special attention. Articles are contributed by members of the law school faculty, members of the bar, and law students.

Professor Howard returned to the Oregon campus last year from service with the armed forces overseas. He has been editor-in-chief of the Review since 1929. While he was on leave of absence the position was filled by Kenneth J. O'Connell.

Complete Lunches and Dinners known for years for our famous spring fried chicken

REX CAFE

92 W. 8th
Beitel and Corbett, Proprietors

Opening Today
HILYARD RIDING STABLES

—Pat and George Eddy—

- Excellent horses for hire
- Close to the campus
- Good riding country
- All new equipment

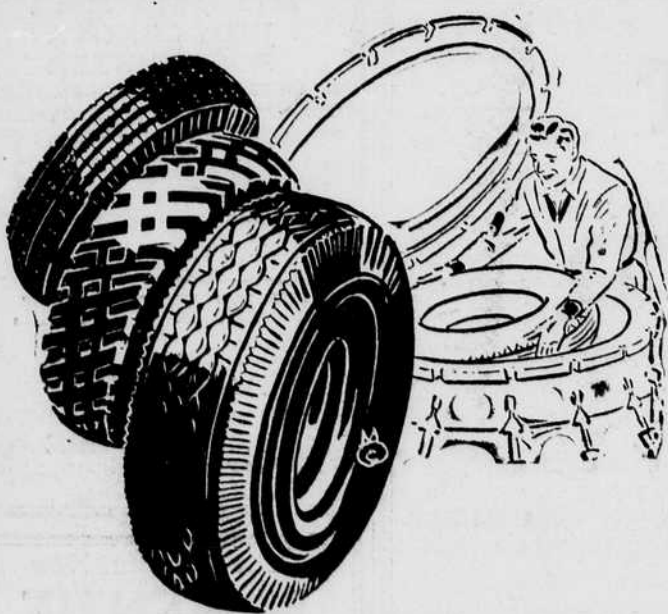

First Class Boarding Service

"Bring your horse to school!"

- Splendid accommodations
- Expert care
- We feed omeline

2892 S. Hilyard St.

At the big red barn

RECAP TIRES FOR SAFER DRIVING

We advise you to have your tires recapped by experts for full mileage service this fall and winter

Jim Brannen

Your Neighbor in the Tire Business
972 Oak

For Those Gifts of Lasting Beauty

SKEIE'S
Jewelry Store

927 Willamette