

Game Sparks Gala Weekend

Frosh Traditions, Order of 'O' Parade On Agenda with Ribbon of Blues Dance

By BETTYE JO BLEDSOE

"Home for Homecoming" celebrations hit their second big day today after opening with Friday's sensational night of merry-making. Alums were welcomed on the campus last night by a crashing noise-parade and fun-packed rally. Today will feature the colorful Oregon-Washington State football game at Hayward field, preceded by observance of freshman traditions and the Order of the "O" parade. Campus clothes will be in order at the game.

The game will be attended by a record crowd representing both Oregon and Washington State teams who will witness the outstanding half-time program and cheer their teams on.

After the game a reception will be held at the armory.

The program will include the traditional introduction of Order of the "O" alums.

Final fun-making and entertainment will take place at the annual Homecoming dance tonight at 9 p. m. in McArthur Court to the blue strains of Jack Teagarden and his band. Dawn Carson, "Homecoming Hostess," will be introduced during the dance intermission. Benny Di-Benedetto is chairman of the Homecoming celebration.

Homecoming Schedule

SATURDAY, October 19:

- 9 A. M.—Alumni registration in Johnson hall.
- 10 A. M.—Freshman traditions (painting of the O, polishing of the seal, etc.).
- 11 A. M.—Alumni meeting at Guild Theater.
- 11:45 A. M.—Order of O luncheon at the College Side Inn.
- 12:00—Alumni luncheon at Gerlinger hall.
- 1:45 P. M.—Order of O parade at Hayward field.
- 1:50 P. M.—Dedication ceremonies.
- 2:00 P. M.—Oregon-Washington State football game (half-time entertainment).
- 4:30 P. M.—After game reception at armory.
- 8-10 P. M.—Faculty reception at Gerlinger hall.
- 9:00 P. M.—Homecoming dance at Mac Court.
- Tapping of Druids and Friars.
- Introducing of Sign Cup.
- Introducing of hostess.

SUNDAY, October 20:

- 1:00 P. M.—Dinner at living organizations.
- 2-4 P. M.—Open house at art, music, and library buildings.

THE LEMON "O" . . .

Freshmen this morning will honor another Oregon Homecoming tradition when they paint the "O" atop Skinner's butte. They have been guarding it all night to ward of vandals. Later the frosh will honor another tradition and scrub the seal at the entrance of Villard hall.

(Emerald photo by Don Jones)

Homecoming Highlights

Prepared for a day packed full of spirited events, Oregon alumni will register today in the lobby of Johnson hall from 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. Phi Thetas and Kwamas will direct registration, at which luncheon and Homecoming dance tickets will be sold.

After guarding the "O" on Skinner's Butte all night, sleepy-eyed freshmen will gather to paint it at 10:00 a.m. At the same time it will be the polishing of the seal in back of Villard hall. Marv Rasmussen is in charge of the Order of the "O" traditions committee.

An alumni meeting at which business will be discussed will be held at the Guild theater at 11 a.m.

Alums who will need rooms tonight are asked to contact Dorothy Rasmussen at the Alpha Delta Pi house.

Members of the Order of the "O" will meet for luncheon at 11:45 Saturday at the Westgate house.

All members of the Order of the "O" will march at the Order of the "O" parade at Hayward field at 1:45 p.m. At 1:50 the dedication ceremonies will be observed.

Giving alums a chance to meet friends they haven't seen for years, and others whom they meet, per-

(Please turn to page six)

Teagarden In Spotlight At Climax of Homecoming

1200 Couples to Pack Igloo as First Name Band of Year Comes to Oregon

Highlighting today's Homecoming celebration will be the Homecoming dance in McArthur court from 9 to 12:45 p. m., featuring the orchestra of Jack Teagarden, heightened by song stylist Christine Martin and vocalist Kenny Martin. The dance will be festive with many couple expected to enjoy Blue "Ribbons" furnished by Mr. "T" and band.

Marty Pond, chairman of the Homecoming dance committee, announced that tickets will be sold tomorrow at the alumni registration office and at McArthur court previous to the dance. Although tickets have sold speedily there are still some available. They will be on sale today at $2.50 a couple.

Short silks or suits are in order for the dance. No corsages are necessary, although girls may wear flowers in their hair.

Some of the numbers included will be "I've Got a Right to Sing the Blues," "Memphis Blues," "St. James Infirmary," "Tiger Rag," and "St. Louis Blues."

During intermission, shortly after 11 p. m., Dawn Carson, newly-elected Homecoming Hostess, will be introduced by M. C. Don Edwards, and will preside over the dance.

At this time the winners of the Homecoming sign contest will be awarded silver cups by Miss Carson, and the new vocal combination, "Three Dots and a Dash," will sing a few numbers. Also tapping of Druids and Friars will take place during intermission.

Parents of students and alumni are invited to visit the dance and witness the presenting of the cup. Seats may be obtained in the back of McArthur court.

Winner of SX 'Sweetie Derby' To be Chosen Monday Evening

Thursday Dinner to Cap Ceremony Five Girls Anticipating Thrill of Last Selection

With five finalists from which to choose, Sigma Chi men will ballot Monday night to determine their choice for the 1946 Sweetheart of Sigma Chi. Ballots will be counted on a special radio broadcast over KORE at 8:15 next Wednesday night, and the program will be climaxed with the announcement of the contest winner. The finalists generally admitted feeling "very excited" as the contest entered its critical stage Friday. The five remaining freshman girls are Pi Beta Phi's Sally Mueller, Chi Omega's Pan Newton, Kappa Alpha Theta's Joanne LaRue, Susan Campbell's Peggy Dougherty, and Hendricks' Carol Hanlon.

Another feature of the announcement broadcast will be the appearance of the Sigma Chi song squad. At a fraternity banquet Thursday evening, October 24, the jeweled Sigma Chi sweetheart ring and necklace will be presented to the newly-elected 1946 sweetheart.

Pictures of the finalists will be taken Tuesday for the Oregonian. A photograph of the Sweetheart at Kennell-Ellis studio also has been scheduled.

This is the first Sweetheart contest to be held since the war started as the contest was discontinued when the fraternity closed.

Winter term dormitory reservations should be made in the dormitory office in John Straub, not Johnson hall, as stated in Friday's Emerald.

Sign, Noise Victors Announced at Rally

Winners in the homecoming sign contest and in the noise parade were announced last night at the all-campus program in McArthur court.

Phi Kappa Psi and Alpha Gamma Delta were announced as winners in the sign contests, and the noisiest float in the noisy noise parade was judged to be that of Beta Theta Pi, Gerlinger and Highland house.

Check!—Emerald Errs

Winter term dormitory reservations should be made in the dormitory office in John Straub, not Johnson hall, as stated in Friday's Emerald.

(Emerald photo by Don Jones)

GIRL OF MY DREAMS . . .

These five finalists in the annual "Sweetheart of Sigma Chi" contest are eagerly awaiting the voting by members of the fraternity next Monday.