

Alumni Organized To Raise Money

Wally Johnson, student union chairman, and Ernest Haycox, president of the Oregon Alumni association, have coordinated efforts to raise money for the proposed Student Union building.

Alumni over the state are being organized into districts by Haycox with a chairman for each section. This chairman and his committee will make special efforts to contact each alum of the University.

Plans for a campaign on the campus are being completed by Johnson and Haycox, and will be announced at a later date.

Today's World

The United States took a firm stand against Soviet Russia's efforts to bar debate in the U. S. general assembly over the veto power of the Big Five.

The government stepped into the airline strike Thursday. No move was taken in soft coal miners' threatened walkout.

President Truman denied any intention of calling congress back into session.

Prime Minister Attlee accused the Soviet government of sealing off the Russian people behind an "Iron Door" in an address to the Trades Union congress convention.

Westminster Members Plan Hay Rack Ride

A "hayrack" ride for all University students is being sponsored by Westminster house, 1414 Kincaid, tonight at 6 p.m.

All students who are planning to come are asked to be at Westminster by 5:45 p.m. at which time the group will start on a mile hike; at the end of the hike a weiner roast will be held and the ride will begin.

If it is raining tonight, instead of a "hay rack" ride, a Hallowe'en party will be held at Westminster. Jim Moe and Vernon Kilpatrick are in charge of the evening.

Labor Tie Ups Cut Co-op Text Supply

Book shipments received by the Co-op recently include a part shipment of 1000 copies of Perin's "Writer's Guide," the balance of the order being expected in approximately a week and a half. Another part shipment of Hall and Davis' "The Course of Europe Since Waterloo," and the second pamphlet in a series of three containing Mackenzie and Noble's "Principles of Accounting," were also received.

A checkoff list of students who have received part of the series is being maintained.

M. S. McClain, Co-op manager, stated that publishers' representatives have told him that book publishing concerns claim no paper shortage difficulties now, but say that labor problems in binderies are holding up the delivery of books ordered some time ago.

Wesleyans Plan Party

Wesley house is sponsoring a Hallowe'en party tonight at 8 to 12 p.m. for all University students. Emily Autenreith is general chairman for the affair and assisting her are Wilma Langfelt, food committee and Kathy Daubson, decorating committee. Old clothes are in order.
