

Preferential Repeal Rejected

OREGON Daily EMERALD

Listen to the Emerald of the Air, KUGN, 10:30 p. m. daily.

VOLUME XLVIII UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE, WEDNESDAY, NOV. 6, 1946 Number 30

(Emerald photo by Don Jones)

DEAN OF MEN SETS EXAMPLE . . .

Virgil D. Earl, dean of men casts his vote at Precinct 28 (near Theta Chi house). Students and faculty turned out en masse Tuesday to mark their ballots at several polling places on and near the campus.

Balloting Results Unknown As Emerald Goes To Press

'Best Voting Weather for Some Time,' Officials Say; Low Turnout Predicted

Oregon students and faculty went to the polls yesterday to cast votes for their political choices, in what precinct officials called the "best voting weather for some time." Registered students and faculty were expected to turn out almost to a man, but late reports had not yet come in when the Emerald went to press.

Webfooters who registered in the Co-op did not all cast their votes on the campus, the voting being regulated as to their place of residence. Most students voted in the polling places located at the Congregational church, Thirteenth and Ferry; University high school assembly room, Sixteenth and Alder; and the Condon school, north basement, at 1550 Moss.

One polling place was located in the news room of the Journalism building, giving the Emerald staff an opportunity to see the voting procedure first hand.

Snell Opposition

Governor Earl Snell was opposed for reelection by Carl C. Donough, Democratic nominee and Republican congressman, Harris Ellsworth, was opposed by Dr. Louis A. Wood, Democratic nominee for the fourth district, and professor of economics at the University.

Angus Gibson, Republican incumbent for the fourth senatorial district was opposed by Linn county's Fred E. Harrison and the third district offered a choice between Truman A. Chase, Republican and Ralph P. Laird, Democrat.

Low Turnout Predicted

Oregon papers predicted a low turnout in spite of the fact that sev-

(Please turn to page eight)

Rhodes Candidates To Face Oral Quiz

Rhodes scholarship candidates still have two more hurdles to clear before they can start packing, Mrs. Clara Fitch of the graduate school announced Monday. The first of these is an oral committee examination to be held in Portland sometime during the early part of December, at which all the Oregon institutions will be represented.

Three will be chosen on the basis of this examination to represent the state of Oregon in the final test, which will be held probably in either Seattle or Spokane. This examination will include all finalists from the northwestern district, which is made up of Oregon, Washington, Idaho, Montana, Wyoming, and North Dakota, and will be held within a week of the Portland test. Rhodes scholarship will be awarded to six of the district examinees.

The four University of Oregon representatives at the Portland meet will be Hugh R. King, graduate student in classics; Donald W.

(Please turn to page eight)

Traffic Problems Subject of Movies

Traffic problems, especially the drunken driver, will be illustrated in three of the movies to be shown in 207 Chapman at 7:30 tonight, the educational activities office announced yesterday.

The movies, "Guilty," "Drunk Driving," and "X Marks the Spot," will be shown with "What Ho, Romeo" featuring Jack Benny.

The election campaigns of the frosh candidates has been quieter than the national political races.

Exec Council Dumps Plurality Voting Plan

Approval Gained for Miller's Succession To Vice Presidency of Sophomore Class

By GLORIA TALARICO

Repeal of preferential voting in favor of plurality voting was rejected by the ASUO executive council Tuesday. If passed by a three-fourths vote of the council this motion, recommended by Ted Hallock, ASUO secretary-treasurer, would have been placed before the students for their decision at the next election.

For placement on the ballot the recommendation must now come before the council in the form of a petition signed by 100 students. A recent Emerald poll showed that only 23 per cent of Oregon students completely understand the preferential voting system.

U of O Housing Available in '47

A gradual leveling off of registration, combined with careful utilization of available facilities, has now made it possible to offer University housing winter term to many students who were forced to live off the campus this term, University officials have announced.

With completion of the second veterans' dorm nearing, the University will soon be in a position to provide quarters to many men who have been living in private homes. More space for women is also becoming available.

380-Man Capacity

With the opening of the other unit, the overflow of men in the one operating this term will be moved to the new one. Each will hold a capacity of 380 men.

Under the set-up winter term, it will be possible to give men the choice of living in three, two, or one-man rooms.

Men living in the veterans' dorms next term will not have to eat at John Straub as they did this term. A clean, modern cafeteria, located centrally between the two dorms, will open in January. Covered sidewalks will lead from each unit to the dining room.

The University is also studying a plan to provide a parking lot next to the dorms for the exclusive use of veterans. Applications for dormitory space should be made at the dorm office in John Straub.

Vet Situation

When veterans began flocking back to college a year ago, Univer-

(Please turn to page eight)

Only five members of the council approved the motion: Hallock, Nick Weddle, Dorothy Fowler, Laura Olson, and Marguerite Wittwer-Wright.

Those who did not vote were: Tom Kay, Marge Cowlin, Dave Fortmiller, Don Pinkerton, and Bea King. Gil Roberts and Pat Webber were not present.

At the same meeting, Bob Miller was approved as vice-president of the sophomore class to replace Reed Grasse. Miller, a Theta Chi, is a former ISA senator and writer of the Emerald's "Vanity Fare" column, and is a committee head for the Sophomore Whiskerino.

Approved was the suggested policy of stating the party of candidates on all ASUO and class election ballots beginning with the freshman elections winter term.

A note of thanks to the city council of Eugene for its purchase of the millrace was suggested by Mrs. Wright and approved by the council.

ISA Council to Add Two Frosh Members

Election of two freshmen, one man and one woman, to the Independent Students association executive council will be held at the Co-op today from 9 a.m. to 12 noon and 1 p.m. to 5 p.m.

The election will complete this year's council by giving the class of 1950 equal representation with the other classes already represented.

The four aspirants for the positions are Donna Gehrke, Bob Lewis, Dick Nealy, and Mary Jane Waggoner.

Limited Number of Pigger's Guides Out

Bulk Due Next Week, Williams Announces

Advance copies of the 1947 Pigger's Guide were distributed to campus administrative offices Tuesday when the first limited number of the student directory came off the press. Olga Yevtich, sophomore in liberal arts, is editor of this year's Guide.

The bulk of the directories have not as yet been bound, Dick Williams, educational activities manager, said Tuesday. They will be ready for distribution to the student body the first part of next week, Williams announced.

Members of the Pigger's Guide staff are: Miss Yevtich, Scotty Mindolovich, art editor; Laure Olson, feature editor; Jean Johnson, associate editors; and Virginia Harris, business manager.

Several of the Emerald staff were among the lucky ones to receive advance copies of the old pigger, but they are definitely not for outside use, according to the proud owners,

(Emerald photo by Don Jones)

PIGGER'S GUIDERS . . .

Shown critically examining proofs of the new Pigger's Guide are: (from left to right around the press) Jean Johnson, associate editor; Olga Yevtich, editor; Laura Olson, feature editor; Virginia Harris, business manager; Mark Daniel Mindolovich, art editor.