

OSC Will Provide Whiskerino Talent

Entertainment for the Whiskerino dance on Saturday night will feature Oregon State sophomore talent in exchange for our sophomore program, Jordis Benke, chairman of the entertainment committee announced today.

Tom Myer, chairman of the December Sophomore Cotillion at OSC will send Cliff McDaniel, popular sophomore at OSC to the Igloo Saturday night to act as emcee of the intermission program. Also included in the exchange of college talent will be Betty Jo Grayson and her trio and other entertainment to take place during the intermission.

At this time the winner of the Whiskerino beard brawl will also be named and will receive his award along with the announcement of the winners of the Betty Co-ed—Joe College contest.

The patrons and patronesses of the Whiskerino dance were also announced Wednesday by Anita Hager who is the chairman in charge. There are to be President and Mrs. Harry K. Newburn, Mr. and Mrs. J. Alan Wickham, Dr. and Mrs. E. M. Pallett, Dean and Mrs. V. D. Earl, Mr. and Mrs. George Hall, Chancellor and Mrs. P. E. Packer and Mrs. Marjorie Cunningham.

The official chaperones will be Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hayden.

Archeology Films Billed Tonight by Condon Club

Archeological experiments in Illinois will be shown in the Condon club movies tonight at 7:30 p.m. in the alumni hall of Gerlinger. The movies have been especially prepared by Dr. Cole of the University of Chicago.

Dr. L. S. Cressman and Dr. A. F. Whiting of the anthropology department will show the films. Refreshments will be served after the meeting. The public is invited to attend, Bob Campbell, club president, announced.

Letter to Emerald

"— and I talked of TNE between ourselves that summer and he said he'd heard of several comments of (three houses) at OSC being strong on TNE and he also found a TNE pin inside one of his roommate's sweaters.

"In the fall term of 1942 I was approached by three fellows who I presumed to be members of the football squad. They went to great pains—which I took as a joke—to remain in the dark and asked if I'd heard of Theta Nu Epsilon fraternity and was interested. They left, saying they'd contact me later.

"— didn't seem to take it serious... but did tell us of — being treasurer of the outlaw organization the previous year. (He) also said — used to make contacts through the — house with a couple of girls. (He) was first contacted the previous spring term during track season into the TNE.

"— was — house prexy that year. He said he was initiated at Hendricks park under blindfold and forced to drink a pint of whiskey. They identified fellow members, (he) said, by the pass word, "Which way does the wind blow?" and replied, (obscurity deleted.) This was a joke between — and I for some time. — seemed very anxious to get in and —, I believe, told him he would try to engineer it, although they seemed to want athletes, high GPAers, and leaders of groups, according to —.

"It was just my understanding that the TNE members were made up of all Greek men, but don't know this for sure."
