

Canterbury Club Frolics At Rustic Barn Dance

The campus Canterbury club is giving a real old Barn Dance at St. Mary's Episcopal church tonight at 8:00. Clay Myers, president of the group, stated that refreshments and other entertainment would be forthcoming also.

The OSC Canterbury club has accepted an invitation to attend the festivities. Campus clothes or jeans are okay, Myers stated, because the dance is to be strictly informal.

SCA Invites Six Delegates To Convention

Those interested in being delegates to the first national assembly of the Student Christian Association movement since December 1941, to be held at the University of Illinois, December 27, to January 3, should apply at the YWCA, according to Lois Greenwood, executive director.

Following the system of one delegate for every 1000 students, the University of Oregon is allowed six. This convention which, it is expected, will bring together approximately 2,000 representatives from student YMCA's, YWCA's, and SCA's from all over the country is usually held once in a college generation for the purpose of determining policy and program emphasis for the student Christian Association Movement for the next four years.

Housing Made Available

The University of Illinois administration is making available places in the university dormitories for fifteen hundred delegates, while the balance will be housed in organized houses and private homes. Meals will be served in the student union and sessions of the assembly will be held in the auditorium.

Leaders at the Urbana assembly will include Dr. Howard Thurman, formerly of Howard University, Washington, D. C., and now co-pastor of an inter-racial church in Oakland, California; Dr. Albert Outler, Yale University; and Charles Bolte, chairman of the American Veterans Committee. Ruth Haines, formerly executive of the University of Washington YWCA is acting as administrative secretary for the assembly.

Nebraska Student Chairman

Student chairmen will be Bill Miller, University of Nebraska, 47, and Mary Ann Mattoon, University of Nebraska, '46. Miller, who was a delegate to the World Student Christian Federation meeting in Geneva, Switzerland, this summer, together with delegates to the international conferences of the International Student Service in Cambridge, England, and the International Union of Students in Prague, Czechoslovakia, will bring in his report of activities of student groups in other countries.

Mrs. H. B. Dallke, (Genevieve Working, '43) was the official delegate from the University of Oregon to the 1941 national assembly at Miami University. Members of the YWCA cabinet have expressed a hope that Oregon will be represented by several delegates this year.

Art Students Hold Annual Frosh Party

Tomorrow night the allied art and architectural league will launch the first of its school year functions, their annual "Freshman party." It will begin at 8 p. m. in the "Li'l Art Gallery."

The party serves a double purpose in that the students will have a chance to formally welcome the new dean of the art school, S. W.

Little.

In addition to group entertainment which is planned, there will be dancing and a short movie, with cider and donuts bringing the evening to a close. All art and architecture students are invited to attend.

Two Films Tonight

Tonight at 7:30 the Home Economics department will show two films: Babies Day at 12 Weeks, and Learning and Growth. These films were produced by the Yale clinic of child development.
