

Fuzz Fest Comes Off at 8:30

Beards Follow On Sunday AM

Donahue's Top Hatters Primed for Whiskerino

By BETTY JO BLEDSOE

Oregon Webfoots will swing out at the Whiskerino dance of the year tonight at McArthur court to the "top-hat rhythm" of Al Donahue and his orchestra. Donahue, who uses solid combination of rhythm and swing, will broadcast over stations KUGN and KORE during the evening, playing for some 1,000 persons expected to attend the dance.

Donahue's many engagements all over the United States have lent his music a versatile quality which adds to the pleasure of the listening as well as the dancing audience.

The combination of intermission entertainment, Al Donahue and his orchestra, and the festive attitude of the participants should make tonight's Whiskerino one of the best in Oregon history.

Short silks will be in order at the dance which is to be held from 8:30 p.m. until 12:30 p.m. Tickets for the Whiskerino dance will go on sale at the educational activities office in Mac court from 8 a.m. until 12 noon today. They may also be purchased at the door. The price per couple is $2.40 including tax.

Kay Becker, chairman of the Whiskerino dance decorations committee, announces that everyone available Saturday morning will be urgently needed at Mac court to help decorate for the dance.

Judges To Defuzz Whisker Champion as Dance Feature

Beard Contest Winner to Receive Intermission Shave by Charley Elliott

Tonight will find the "befuzzed" Oregon campus emerged in the traditional celebration of the annual sophomore Whiskerino. This year's beard brawl at McArthur court promises to be outstanding with both Webfoot and OSC entertainment to be presented.

Preparations for the big night at the Igloo have been in progress for more than a week with evidences of many an attempt at a beard, painting of murals featuring the now well-known Samson and Delilah, and the dunking of those who wouldn't neglect their razors.

Housing Sought For Press Confab

Work has begun to find housing for the expected 150 high school students attending the high school press conference here December 6 and 7, according to Leonard Jermain, instructor of journalism and chairman of the arrangements committee for the conference.

The high school press conference is held annually, to enable high school editors to improve their own papers as well as give general information in the field of journalism. Later in the year a committee of faculty members and students of the school of journalism judge the papers in a high school newspaper contest.

The conference will be climaxed by a banquet at the Osburn hotel Friday evening, the actual meetings ending Saturday at noon.

Sigma Delta Chi, national professional journalism fraternity, will hold a formal initiation at the banquet.

Members of the other committees for the conference are program committee, Warren C. Price, chairman, and Hilliar Kreighbaum and Carl Webb. Robert C. Hall is assisting Jermain on the arrangements committee.

OREGON Daily EMERALD

VOLUME XLVIII

UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 16, 1946

Number 42

Popular Met Star To Appear In Mac Court Monday Night

Housing Allotment Confirmed For UO

Official confirmation of the additional housing allotment made to the University by the Federal Works administration has been received by Will V. Norris, University engineering supervisor. The Emerald carried an unofficial announcement of the allotment in its Thursday edition.

The allotment consists of two C-shaped, two-story buildings to be moved here from Camp Adair, near Corvallis. Each unit has 24,000 square feet of floor space.

Norris said that he expected the buildings, which will be used for classroom and office space, to be set up and ready for occupancy in time for next fall term.

LAURITZ MELCHIOR . . .
"The Greatest" heroic tenor who will appear here Monday.

Melchior Concert Begins at 8:15 p.m.

By LAURA OLSON

Accompanied by his own orchestra, Lauritz Melchior will arrive in Eugene Monday afternoon. He and his company will appear in McArthur court at 8:15 p.m. Both members of the ASUO and the Eugene Civic Music association are eligible to attend the concert if they present educational activities or membership cards.

The concert star has won universal acclaim as the Metropolitan Opera's greatest heroic tenor. He is known as the concert world's most sought-after artist, and has made many guest appearances over the radio. Recently Melchior made his debut in motion pictures when he appeared in "Thrill of a Romance."

The Great Dane is the first artist to tour with his own orchestra. He is also the first concert star to charter planes so that his tours may be more extensive. This fall, Melchior will visit 60 cities.

Melchior recently returned to Denmark for the first time in seven years. The occasion for this trip was the 75th birthday of King Christian X who issued a decree for a command performance by Denmark's "most distinguished artist and one of her most loyal sons." On the same trip he sang for allied occupation troops in Europe.

JVs Play Today

Oregon's junior varsity, coached by John Warren, will tangle with the Oregon State frosh football team on Hayward field this afternoon at 2 p.m. The University band will play, and the junior varsity rally squad will lead the cheering, under the leadership of Jack Schnaidt, junior yell king. Students are asked to enter the field through the west side of the grandstand and cross to the east side of the playing field.

Continental Tour Begun by Morse

Wayne L. Morse, Republican senator from Oregon and former dean of the University law school, left the United States Wednesday for Europe on a five-week trip which will take him through France, Germany, Austria, Italy, and the Mediterranean.

The senator described his trip as unique in two aspects. He will pay his own expenses, and he is not searching for material to use in an investigation.

Senator Morse will also visit Russia if it proves possible to get the necessary government permit without extended delay.

After returning from Europe in December, Morse hopes to be able to keep several speaking engagements in Oregon which were canceled by his recent illness.

UN Reception Pleases College Delegates, Portland League Told

Lois McConkey Putnam, 1946 graduate of the University, and Troy M. Strong, student at the College of Puget Sound, spoke before the Portland League of Women Voters in the Benson hotel, Portland, Wednesday noon concerning their recent trip to New York to present the resolutions of the Pacific Northwest College congress to the American delegation to the United Nations.

The resolutions were drawn up last spring at Reed college where 62 delegates from 31 northwest universities met in the first PNCC. Later these resolutions were approved by 47,000 college students represented at the congress.

The speakers said that the reception given them by the American delegation, by Trygve Lie, secretary general, and others, strengthened their hopes that a national college students' congress and even an international one may be formed.

Lois Putnam described the actual presentation of the resolutions to the American delegation. "The importance of giving adult students a voice in world affairs was expressed," she said, "and we were assured that the door would always be open to us."

She described the setting of the United Nations meeting and the great, great privilege of seeing particular leaders from all over the world.

New Physical Plant Officially Accepted

The University Friday officially accepted the new physical plant, located north of the infirmary on Onyx, from the contractors, Stein Brothers of Eugene.

The building, which was built at a cost of $37,000, will house the University paint and plumbing shops, and electrical and heating equipment. It will be under control of C. Ken Weidmer, superintendent of the physical plant.

Lawrence and Lawrence, Portland architects designed the new building. The University will occupy the structure as soon as housing equipment and furniture being stored in it can be moved out.

This addition to the physical system gives the University one of the most modern plants on the Pacific coast.

Brahms Concert Sunday

The weekly concert held Sunday in the Browsing room of the library, will this week include Brahms' Piano Concerto, from the record collection of Dr. and Mrs. Kenneth Ghent.