Gamma Alpha Chi To Sell 5,000 Apples

"Five thousand Hood River apples have been ordered for the Gamma Alpha Chi apple sale," Virginia Harris, president of the women's advertising honorary, said at a noon meeting of committee heads and members of the group, at Rennell's Thursday.

This means nearly an apple for each student on the campus! Web-foots are urged to "keep their eyes peeled" for the opening of the two-day sale, tentatively set for November 25 and 26.

Revised plans for locations of the apple booths, place them definitely at the following campus sites; the art school patio, Co-op, Friendly hall, the Falcon, library, and in front of the Side.

In the event of a surplus supply on hand after the scheduled campus sale, individual house sales will be conducted, Nancy Peterson, general chairman, stated.
