

Department Offers Nursing Careers

Pre-nursing careers are offered to capable young women at the University of Oregon medical school through the department of nursing education under the direction of Miss Olive Slocum, assistant professor of nursing education.

Opportunity is given college-prepared registered nurses to specialize in institutional nursing, public health nursing, nursing education, private day nursing, and government institutional and military nursing in peace time.

The nursing department uses the library and classrooms of the medical school. In addition, three hospitals with a total bed capacity of 430 are on the campus. Other facilities include five operating rooms and an operating-room amphitheater.

Five terms of work are taken at the University of Oregon or Oregon State college. The sixth term, during which requirements for the junior certificate are filled, is taken at the medical school in Portland.

The hospital units in Portland include: Multnomah hospital, medical and surgical nursing; Doernbecher Memorial Hospital for Children; University State Tuberculosis hospital for nursing in tuberculosis; the Good Samaritan and Emanuel hospitals for obstetrical nursing.

Vets Forum

By JOHN JENSEN and DALE HARLAN

If the writer or an anonymous letter to Mr. Hall would like an answer to his questions, Mr. Hall would be happy to have him call at his office.

A mutual friend proposed a money-making scheme to us whereby he would not only collect his government subsistence check during Christmas vacation but would also apply for unemployment compensation at $20 a week. This, plus a part-time job in his home town of Rainville, amounted to a Christmas vacation with $278 extra.

Because of the friendship of the third party, we decided to get the accurate details about Christmas vacation and the government program direct from the VA.

Veterans will receive usual subsistence allowance during the vacation period, as if they were regularly attending classes. There will be no official interruption of the training program. However, a veteran cannot apply for unemployment benefits while enrolled under a program of the GI bill.

Excepting veterans under Public Law 16, the $110 limit on wages earned during one school month will continue to apply.

Art Bazaar Set For December

December 6 and 7 are the dates set for the holding of this year's Art Bazaar, an event sponsored annually by the Allied Arts League of the school of architecture and allied arts. The bazaar performs a dual purpose of providing for exhibition and sale of student work.

With enrollment in the school the highest on record, this year's bazaar will be the most ambitious ever undertaken, and included in the sale will be jewelry, paintings, drawings, sculptures, ceramics, wood carvings, textiles, and other items, such as Christmas cards and novelties.

All items offered are original, creative products, and distinctive and individual in design.

A festive, holiday spirit will prevail at the bazaar through extensive use of Christmas decorations and the provision of music at regular intervals by groups of carolers.
