

Cover Dearth Hits Feminine Editors

First it was housing and now it's blankets for the feminine delegates troubling the arrangements committee for the Oregon high school newspaper conference.

An estimated 150 high school journalists will be on the campus December 6 and 7 and since half of these are women the committee is faced with the problem of finding 150 blankets to distribute, giving two to each journalist.

Sororities housing the conferees reported all their blankets in use and Leonard L. Jermain, chairman of the arrangements committee, is hoping the Red Cross or somebody will come through with some blankets for the two-day session.

Boughton Plans Concert

George Boughton, assistant professor of violin, will presented in a concert at the Klamath Falls Shrine hospital benefit December 13. His program will include selections by Beethoven, Mendelssohn, Kreisler, DeFalla, Bloch, Prokofieff, Novacek, and Monpou. Mr. Boughton's wife, Sare Collin-Boughton, instructor in piano, will accompany the violinist.

All-Campus Sing

The students include one from each cooperating church, one from the YMCA and the YWCA, and 10 students-at-large chosen by the council from the student body.

Homer Britton will be the soloist and song leader for the Hyman Appelman meetings which are being held each night at 7:30 at the First Baptist church. Mr. Britton will direct a choir of 60 voices, and also will play the trombone.

Dr. Hyman Appelman has conducted city-wide campaigns in Philadelphia, Los Angeles, and just recently in Portland Tacoma, and Seattle. He was born of Jewish parents in Russia and later came to the United States where he became an outstanding attorney in Denver. He will speak each night at 7:30 and each noon at 12:10 until December 8th. There are eight churches of this area cooperating in the meetings.

The primary problem at the Amazon housing project is sewage.

There are still cockroaches in the journalism building.
