Telling the Editor

(Continued from page four) room together. After securing the permission of the house mother, they were informed that there is a campus regulation to the effect that colored students and white students cannot room together even at their own request.

Other instances were cited and substantiated of discriminatory treatment in housing and dormitory policy.

An investigating committee interviewed the house mother of Alpha hall and Mrs. Turnipseed, both of whom assured the committee that they were acting under a ruling signed by the president of the University.

The ONE WORLD CLUB is writing a letter to the President of the University and sending him a copy to the EMERALD on the assumption that it is the duty of all Americans to defend the provisions of the Constitution and the Declaration of Independence which state that all men are created equal and that "No state shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States. . . ."

If this ruling exists, Mr. President, we would like to know the authority on which the ruling is based, in order that we may act to have it rescinded; because we feel that a state university is supported by all the taxpayers, and its facilities should be equally available to all the people, regardless of race, class, or creed.

Very truly yours,

Open Minds —for open Country

TELEPHONE men are hard at work extending and improving telephone service in rural areas served by the Bell Companies. They're pushing a $100,000,000 three to five year program to give telephone service to all who want it just as fast as possible.

To do this they had to look beyond conventional telephone practices. New techniques and new and improved equipment had to be planned, developed and proved. Now they are furnishing telephone service over rural power lines, over new steel wire that requires fewer poles per mile, over insulated wire that can be buried directly in the ground and by means of rural radio.

Men who approach every problem with open minds . . . who are guided by ingenuity and resourcefulness rather than by established method . . . find telephony an ever stimulating and interesting career.
