

Steelworkers Extend Pact

PITTSBURGH, Jan. 24 (AP)—The U. S. Steel corporation and the CIO-United Steelworkers agreed Friday night to extend present contracts of all "big steel" subsidiaries until April 30 to gain additional time to work out a 1947 agreement for some 170,000 workers.

News of the extension came after both sides decided to adjourn contract discussions until Monday. A two hour morning meeting, first to be held on a new contract, ended with the union presenting its 15-point program to the steel representatives headed by John A. Stephens, vice-president in charge of industrial relations for U. S. Steel of Delaware. The present contract expires Feb. 15.

Von Papen Tried In De-Nazi Court

NUERNBERG, Jan. 24 (AP)—Franz von Papen went on trial before a German denazification court Friday after unsuccessfully challenging the Bavarian tribunal's right to hear the case.

The seven-man court brushed aside the graying old diplomat's contention that he belongs in the French or British zones of occupation, not in the American zone, and proceeded with the trial of charges that von Papen was a supporter of Adolph Hitler in the palmy days of the Nazi regime. Conviction can mean ten years at hard labor for the 69-year-old German diplomatic ace, who once served as Hitler's vice chancellor.
