

Independents Win Frosh Elections

OREGON Daily EMERALD

VOLUME XLVIII UNIVERSITY OF OREGON, EUGENE, WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 29, 1947 Number 71

A UNION FOR THE STUDENTS . . .

Above is the architect's picture of Oregon's long-anticipated Student Union building, whose plans were approved Monday by the state board of higher education. No actual building plans have been announced as yet, although the site at the corner of Thirteenth and University streets has been set.

Building Committee Okays Plans for UO Student Union

Approval of preliminary plans of the Erb Memorial Union by the building committee of the state board of higher education Monday culminated a lengthy drive by University officials and students to obtain such a building for this campus.

Dr. Harry K. Newburn, president of the University, in announcing the plans, stressed the amount of preparation and work that had gone into them. He said that consultations had been held with leading campus planning agencies throughout the nation and that many union buildings now in use were studied to determine the best and most practical plan applicable to the University of Oregon.

Features Included

Features of the new, modern building will include administrative office space for student government and organizations, alumni offices, a ballroom, lounge for guests, a cafeteria and dining room, music rooms, various recreation rooms, and several residence rooms for use by visiting speakers and by members of the University family.

The corner of Thirteenth and University streets has been designated as the site for the building. It will face the present campus and will cover 150,000 square feet.

Stratton Appointed Managing Editor

Bill Stratton, sophomore in journalism, today replaces Jack Billings, senior in journalism, as Emerald managing editor. Stratton's appointment was announced Monday by Editor Marguerite Wright.

The new managing editor has served as assistant sports editor and worked on the sports staff before the war. He is an army veteran. Don Fair, freshman in business administration, will replace Stratton on the sports staff.

Stratton will retain his assistants, but has appointed Bob Frazier, Emerald associate editor, to replace Gloria Smith as editor of the world news section.

Petticoat Pedantry

The stronger sex? Must be a lie; For now the grades are read, It seems the charm does not apply To regions of the head.

D. F. S.

'Letter to Dad' Contest Open

A contest for the best letter, to send to every Oregon dad inviting him to attend the February 15 Dads' Day celebration, will be held this week, Ann Burgess, chairman of the invitations committee, has announced.

All letters are to be turned in to Miss Burgess at the Kappa Alpha Theta house or to Dale Harlan at Sherry Ross hall by 5 p.m. Friday, January 31. Letters are not to be over 200 words in length and may be in the form of an informal letter including cartoons, or be in selective postcard style inviting dad to Dads' weekend on the University campus.

A prize will be awarded and in addition the winning letter will be published in the Emerald in order that it may be sent home by all students.

In addition to the contest, students who are not affiliated with some living organization on the campus are urged to write their dads this week, and also to phone Bob Matteson at the ATO house if they cannot find a place for their dads to stay. Since all hotel reservations have been taken for that weekend, any student who needs a place for his father to say is urged to phone immediately.

Beaux Arts Ball Has Venice Motif

"Carnival of Venice" is the theme as announced by the general chairman, Don Stetson, for the annual Beaux Arts ball which is scheduled for March 8.

Stetson has promised this to be one of the biggest and best ever sponsored by the Allied Art league on this campus with the ticket sales being limited to 300.

The committee heads to assist in this affair have been appointed as follows: Bev Slaney, decorations; Betty Donaldson and Ann Hite, tickets; Lura Givnan, patrons and patronesses; Dee Parker, properties; Barbara Borrevik, publicity; Jean Young, refreshments; George Mengelkoch, cleanup; Phyllis Hanrahan, costume contest; and Phyllis Moore, finance.

This is a costume affair limited to art students only, or at least one of the couple must be an art student.

Momentous Change Rocks University

Disclosure was made Tuesday of an important change which may ultimately affect the lives of many University students.

The momentous decision was made in Portland by the state board of higher education when they approved a special recommendation submitted to them by President Harry K. Newburn.

This campus-shaking change? The school of physical education will henceforth be known as the school of physical education and health!

W...

Johnson Named To No. 1 Position By 16 Vote Edge

Independent candidate Art Johnson, freshman in business administration, was elected president of his class in yesterday's election.

Johnson received 493 votes for first position, and Jim Bocchi, nominated by the Affiliated Students association, polled 477.

A total of 1030 ballots were cast, 24 of them being disqualified for being marked incorrectly and the remainder named the number two candidates as first choice.

Gericke No. 3

Donna Gericke, Independent Students association candidate, received 59 more votes than Jeanine Macaulay to win the secretarial position. Miss Macaulay was automatically given the No. 4 post.

The polls were open from 8 a. m. to 6 p. m. and 501 votes had been cast by noon.

Schumacher Called

To clarify the constitutional provisions for preferential voting procedure, Professor Waldo Schumacher, who drew up the ASUO constitution, was called.

The committee in charge of ballot tabulation, headed by Assistant Dean of Men George Hall, included Gil Roberts, Howard Lemons, Joan Preble, Bob Aiken, Dick Savinar, Hal Brevig, Joe Conroy, and Larry Lau.

According to the constitution, the ballots will be held in deposit until February 5, when they will be destroyed. Any official of either party has ten days in which to file a petition for contesting the election.

Junior Petitions Open

Petitions are now being accepted for the position of junior class vice-president. The petitions must be accompanied by an eligibility certificate obtained from the dean of men's office and should be turned in to Bob Daggett at the Sigma Chi house or to Joyce Niedermeyer at Susan Campbell by Friday.

—EMERALD photo by Don Jones.

FETE PLANNERS . . . Barbara Fullmer and Barbara Borrevik, co-chairmen of the Women's Athletic Association carnival are pictured talking over final plans.

Carnival Plans Near End; Prizes Slated for Best Booth

The annual carnival sponsored by the Women's Athletic association, complete with pie throws, dancing girls, fortune telling, and dancing, will be held Friday night at 8:30 in the outdoor gym at Gerlinger.

Co-chairmen Bobbie Fullmer and Barbara Borrevik have announced that the outstanding booth sponsored by living organizations will be awarded a prize.

General admission to the carnival will be ten cents in scrip, and all concessions will take their receipts in scrip, the co-chairmen said.

Program and Dancing

Entertainment other than that

(Please turn to page seven)