

Maryann Thielen Chosen No. 7 Unknown Sweetheart

Suzy hall's Maryann Thielen was chosen seventh in the "Unknown Sweetheart" series for this week, and it's a pity that all interviews weren't as pleasant and sharp as this one was. Possessing a repartee that is as lethal as an educated left jab, Miss Thielen gave forth with the following dope: age, 22; height (with knees slightly bent) 5'6½"; weight, a well put together 128 lbs.; eyes, sparkling blue; year, junior; major, journalism.

"After being put out of Grant high school in Portland when my four years were up," Miss Thielen admitted, "I put in a year at the University of Washington before coming down to Oregon. The campus there was just too big, and besides I wanted to go to a good journalism school."

Oregon Friendly

"The spirit and friendliness here at Oregon is much more pronounced than at Washington," she added, "and there is definitely much more going on."

Miss Thielen on men: "He's GOTTA BE TALL," she exclaimed, "and preferably with brown eyes. I've always had trouble with brown-eyed men... but I still love 'em. Manners are important," she continued, "and a good sense of humor is a must."

As far as post-graduation plans are concerned, Miss Thielen hopes to write short stories and features for periodicals, and to work for several years on a newspaper to glean experience.

Gregarious Girl

Gregarious by nature, Maryann likes skiing, golf (if she could hit the ball), badminton, and doesn't give a hoot about swimming.* Her secret ambition is to learn how to fly because after several flights to Portland she wants to learn to drive an airplane herself.

When asked about indoor sports,

Miss Thielen had "no comment."

As far as personality and charm are concerned this week's winner has a basketful to spare. She won't have to write features to get along after she is graduated.

*(She'd be an asset to anyone's beach. Ed. note.)

"Let's Sing" Series Presents Requests

This week's program of the "Let's Sing, America" series presented each Thursday at 1:15 p.m. by juniors in the field of public school music will be composed entirely of request numbers.

This series, now in its fourth year of sponsorship as a regular feature of the KOAC "School of the Air" is under the direction of Miss Maude Garnett, head of the department of public school music at the University.

Throughout the year, the music has been that of the United States, songs of different sections of the country. The all-request program on Thursday will conclude the series of songs about people and places in the Middle West.

"These requests have come from the children in the one- and two-room schools of the state who meet each Thursday in their own school rooms to sing with the studio group here in Eugene," Miss Garnett explained.

This week's program is under the direction of Aileen Wendt, Marie Peery, Marva Hutchison, Virginia Burt, Jean Paris, Aileen Koch, Patricia Heinrichs, and Irene Burgess. Jimmy Kays acts as announcer and also participates in the program.

University Radio Show Features Music Trio

The program "Something for You," to be presented over KUGN tonight, will feature music by a trio made up of Miriam Shellenberger, Barbara Kafoury and Phyllis Potter.

Also on the program will be a song by Betty Jean McKenzie, accompanied by Jean Swift.

Among the numbers to be presented are "Embraceable You," "Blue Moon," and "Oh! But I Did." The show will be announced by Paul Marcotte.
