

Aqua-Ducks Journey North For Swim-fest With Huskies

By ELWIN PAXSON

A stream-lined traveling squad of 10 swimmers, coach, and manager, will arrive in Seattle late this afternoon as they prepare to meet the potent Washington paddlers in the Huskies' pool Saturday night.

The Ducks will drive to Portland this forenoon, board the train at the Union station, and arrive in Seattle in time for a brisk workout before the 10:30 curfew set by John Warren, aqua mentor.

Breaststroker Earl Walters is apparently recovered from his strained back and will compete again in the Washington ND record-breakers. John Miller will be his running mate.

Ralph Huestis, coast record holder, and Bill Seal are slated to churn the lanes in the breaststroke, another event in which the Huskies are loaded with speedsters.

In free-style competition the sprinting events will be handled by George Moorhead, one-year lettermen, and Alden Sundlie who was shifted from his 440 berth. Distance men will be Don Rush, pace-setter in the 440, and big Bob Hiatt, a 220 ace.

Supplying the one-two punch in the diving contest are Benny Holcomb and Tom Corbett, both of whom have shown plenty of finesse in last week's workouts. Coach John

California	5	1	.833
U.C.L.A.	4	2	.666
Stanford	1	3	.250
U.S.S.	0	4	.000

With all schools scheduling final examinations this week, the southern division remains idle until February 7. At the end of last week's competition California still topped the loop with a won-lost percentage of .833.

Last weekend, UCLA almost showed the Golden Bears of California that southern California schools still dominate the conference loop, by dumping California 52-45 in their first conference meeting. But Coach "Nibs" Price and his California quintet turned back the Bruins the following night, 62-46, to bring home the bacon safe and sound at least until the Golden Bears resume action again February 21.

Next week, the Trojans of Southern California will resume action when they meet the Stanford Indians in a two-game series at Los Angeles. UCLA and California will enter conference activities the following week.

In the scoring department, Johnny Stanich of UCLA leads the conference sharp shooters with a total of 78 points, an average of 13 points per game. Cal's Jack Rucker is close behind him with 77 points.

The scoring leaders:

	FG	FT	PF	TP
Stanich, UCLA	35	8	10	78
Rucker, Cal	29	19	9	77
Garksdale, UCLA	29	15	18	73

Huskies Ready For Beavers

SEATTLE, Jan. 30—(AP)—The University of Washington Huskies headed for the basketball ramparts of Oregon Thursday well-grounded on the methods of cracking—or attempting to crack—a zone defense.

Coach Hec Edmundson's last team drill gave the squad a lesson in zone work on the theory that Coach Slat's Gill of Oregon State might switch defensive styles when the teams meet at Corvallis Friday and Saturday nights. The Huskies, who couldn't dent it last Friday, ran wild through Gill's man-to-man defense Saturday.

The traveling squad, which also meets Oregon on the trip in Monday and Tuesday tilts, includes Centers Jack Nichols, Dan Roberts, and Jim Mallory; Forwards Sammy White, Boody Gilbertson, Bill Vandenburg, and Bob Eckman, and Guards Bill Taylor, Bobby Jorgensen, Les Eathorne, Al Kean, and Capt. Charles Sheaffer.

Bob Wren . . . Rough-and-ready forward for the Webfoots, Wren is one of the members of the newly formed "Vertebrate Five." Used at forward he is expected to see action against the Washington Huskies next week.

Jayvees Provide Workout As Ducks Prep for Huskies

A length scrimmage against the Jayvees featured yesterday's workout for Coach Howard Hobson's Webfoot hoopers. With no games scheduled until next week's series against Washington, the squad was given a stiff running session in preparation for the fast-breaking Huskies.

Coach Hec Edmundson's Washington fives have long been known as "fire wagon" clubs with this year's team built around the guards, Bill Taylor and Bobbie Jorgensen. Taylor has been labeled by Seattle scribes as among the fastest in the country, but Jorgensen thus far this season has contributed a much larger share of points.

Nichols at Center

The work of Center Jack Nichols has also been outstanding during early season games. While in the service he saw action as a trainee at USC where he held down a starting role.

Top forwards on Hec Edmundson's quintet are Sammie White and Boody Gilbertson. White set mid-western newspapers ablaze while in the navy when he performed for the Great Lakes team. Gilbertson has shared top Husky scoring honors this year along with Nichols and Jorgensen.

Hopes continue high on Coach Hobson's lemon and yellow cagers.

Eagles Take Handball From Theta Chi Team

In intramural handball play yesterday, the Legal Eagles moved in front of the pack by triumphing over Theta Chi in yesterday's matches. The barristers proved their mettle by capturing two of the three matches.

In the singles, the Legal Eagles won by counts of 21-2, 23-21; and 21-11, 21-2. Doubles match went to Theta Chi as the Eagles had no team to compete and lost by forfeit.

Frosh Invade Marshfield For Cage Struggle Tonight

Coach Ted Schopf will send his Frosh basketball team out in quest of its fifteenth consecutive win tonight when it tackles Marshfield high on the Pirates home court.

Unbeaten in season's play, the Ducklings met the coast team early in the season and squeezed out a 42-40 triumph over Hank Anderson's rugged hoopsters. Playing on Marshfield's floor tonight may make a big difference in the outcome, although the Frosh have been perking up in their recent games.

Kimball Leads Scorers

Don Kimball, Little Duck forward, is still ahead of the pack in point totals with 102. Close on his heels is Bill Green, who holds down the other forward berth, with 94.

By virtue of a 36 point splurge in last weekend's tilts, lefty Chuck Rufner bolted himself into third place in individual scoring with 84. Pivot man Roger Mockford has 73, Ed Gudgel 62, Rod Downey 59, Pat Wohlers 54, Elton Lantz 40, Kenny Johnson 34, Tom Patton 27, and Dom Provost 6.

Marshfield, in the first tilt here, proved that it could run with the Schopfmens. As the local squad banks on such tactics, a race-horse affair can be counted on tonight.

O'Neil and Hunt High

Point-making for the Pirates is well handled by Bill O'Neil and Ken Hunt, both of whom are no slouches under the boards. During season's play Marshfield has been a hot-and-cold quintet, but as is the case with most high school teams, the Pirates play hardest when tackling a college team.

Newest addition to the Duckling squad is Dom Provost, a guard who worked into the two Monmouth games last Saturday and handled himself well on the floor. Probable opening five for the Frosh will be the "old-reliable" gang of Green and Kimball forwards, Mockford center, and Rufner and Downey guards.

Bob Wren . . . Rough-and-ready forward for the Webfoots, Wren is one of the members of the newly formed "Vertebrate Five." Used at forward he is expected to see action against the Washington Huskies next week.

John Warren . . . Swimming coach will accompany the Oregon team to Seattle where they will tangle with Washington in a crucial meet. Both schools boast a win over Oregon State in their lone ND encounter.
