

New Pledges Named Monday

Twenty-seven girls were pledged to ten sororities on Monday morning, the first date for pledging during the winter term open rushing period, according to the dean of women.

Girls pledging were: Lucretia Prentiss, Alpha Chi Omega; Nadine Hall, and Helen Thorburn, Alpha Gamma Delta; Anita Mae Jackson, Alpha Phi; Lucy Madden and Beverly Smith, Chi Omega; and Jo Bjeland, and Margo Spangler, Delta

Delta Delta. Betty Lou Baker, Norma McKeegan, Charlotte Richardson, and Vivian Eileen Richardson, Delta Zeta; Barbara Buddenhagen, Jean Duyck, and Catherine Jane Beed, Gamma Phi Beta; Mary Lou Casey, Peggy Dougherty, Dian Krieske, Nancy Moran, Sallie Powell, and Suzanne Rawlings, Kappa Alpha Theta. Peggy Akers, Elizabeth Kratt, and Joan Mowat, Kappa Kappa Gamma; Audrey Barthold, Martylou Coffey, and Wanda Myers, Sigma Kappa.

These girls will continue to live in the dormitories until next term, unless another girl desires to fill their dorm room, in which case the pledge may move into the sorority house.

Open rushing will continue through the term and girls may be pledged at any time, although houses must stay within the housing quota set by Panhellenic.

Mu Phi Sorority Sponsors Benefit

A bridge benefit, sponsored by Nu chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon, national women's professional music sorority, will be held Friday afternoon from 2 to 4 at the Alpha Gamma Delta and Kappa Kappa Gamma houses.

The benefit is planned to aid the chapter's project, the purchase of opera scores for the music school library of recordings and scores in the Carnegie room. The proceeds of a similar bridge benefit last year were used for the purchase of 13 bound scores.

Mu Phi Epsilon's national project, called "Music in Hospitals" will also receive some help through the proceeds of this benefit. This project is for the advancement of the new field of musical therapy.

Jean Girts, senior in business administration, will serve as general chairman for the benefit and her committee chairmen consist of Lena Lou Pope, programs and tallies; Lois Roeder, tickets; Mary Louise Stone, entertainment; Elizabeth Pollock, social; Jerine Newhouse, publicity; and Marie Peery, arrangements.

Contract bridge and pinochle tables will both be arranged. Prizes are being donated by the Mu Phi Epsilon patroness association. Students may obtain reservations of tables or tickets by phoning Lois Roeder at 2840. The price will be 60 cents per person, $2.40 per table.

Air Forces Offer Meteorolog Training

The army air forces has approved and established a program for training weather officers at civilian universities. Former officers who are qualified for this training may request recall to active duty for the purpose of attending courses at the University of Chicago, Massachusetts Institute of Technology, New York university, California Institute of Technology, and the University of California at Los Angeles. Classes will begin at these schools for the mid-term semesters with additional quotas for summer and fall semesters planned.

Reserve officers in the grade of major and below who have completed at least three years of college work including mathematics through integral calculus and one year of college physics and who are physically and otherwise qualified, are eligible for recall to active duty for weather officer training.

Reserve officers of the other arms and services will be transferred to the air reserve upon acceptance of recall to active duty for weather officer training.

Individuals who successfully complete the prescribed course of weather officer training at these civilian schools will serve on active duty as weather officers with the air weather service of the AAF.

Qualified individuals who desire this training should forward applications and transcripts of college credits direct to Chief, Air Weather Service, Washington 25, D. C.
