

Flags, Lapel Pins to Distinguish Foreign-Born Guests at Festival For Frosh May Apply

Off-campus guests and students attending the International Festival Saturday who were originally from foreign countries will have their native lands marked with little flags on the large map of the world which will be placed in the YWCA, Renee Cowell, registration chairman said Thursday.

They will also be given circular pins resembling the globe for their lapels, and their name and land will be marked on the lapel pin. This is to give the festival chairmen an idea of how many foreign countries are represented, Miss Cowell added.

Booth in Bungalow
A World Student Service Fund booth will be placed in the Y bungalow during the festival.

The program for the Festival tea which will be held from 4 to 5:30 p.m. in the Alumni hall of Gerlinger will be presented by the YWCA Freshman commissions, Bjorg Hansen, general chairman said. Weddings of foreign countries is the theme for the tea.

The Chinese wedding will be presented by the Monday commission. Miss Marian Fong, senior in sociology, will model her grandmother's wedding dress.

Commission Supervises
Supervised by the Tuesday evening commission, the Egyptian wedding will be presented by Egyptian students of the University and Oregon State college. An English wedding will be presented by the Tuesday afternoon commission. The Austrian and Russian weddings will be given by the Wednesday afternoon commissions.

Miss Hansen asks that everyone who plans to attend the tea contact Miss Lois Greenwood, executive director of the YWCA, by 5 p.m. tonight.

Clifton James to Portray

cle Chris? It's the hardest, but most interesting part I've ever done. There doesn't seem to be enough time to study it as thoroughly as I would like to do."

James on Stage
Previous appearances of James on the University stage have been in "Dear Brutus," "The Time of Your Life," "Dark of the Moon," "Ladies of the Jury," and "School for Husbands."

James is a sophomore sociology major and served in the 41st division in New Guinea and the Philippines during the war.

Applications are now being received for the freshman scholarships awarded annually by the Oregon Mothers, Mrs. John Carkin of Salem, president, announced Wednesday.

Scholarships will be awarded on the same basis as in previous years, as voted upon last week by the state executive board of Oregon Mothers, according to Mrs. Carkin.

Grants Named
The Petronella G. Peets scholarship, the Louise H. Cook scholarship, and the Burt Brown Barker scholarship, each for $200, will be available, she said. Supplementary scholarships of $50 to $150 will also be granted.

The supplementary scholarships, Mrs. Carkin points out, are dependent upon the funds the mothers' organization raises during the year. Last year's supplementary fund reached $700. Mothers also expect to add substantially to their emergency loan fund, which now totals $7500.

Onthank Has Forms
Oregon Mothers' scholarships are awarded by a committee headed by Karl W. Onthank, dean of personnel administration. Application forms may be obtained from him and should be filed not later than April 1 in order to be considered for 1947-48 awards.

Other committee members are: Mrs. Marie R. Mason, instructor of mathematics; Dr. Rudolph H. Ernst, professor of literature; Dr. Leona Tyler, professor of psychology; and Mrs. Golda Wickham, dean of women.

Jazz Program Planned

All students interested in jazz music and its history are invited to attend a meeting on the sunporch of Gerlinger hall on February 12 at 6:45 p.m. to hear recordings of jazz dating from the New Orleans era to the modern time. "Pops" Windus and Fred Samain are in charge of arrangements. If sufficient interest is shown, a campus jazz club may be organized, according to Samain.

Essay Contest Set For June

Under the provisions of a trust established by Mr. Philo Sherman Bennett, prizes are being awarded to the University of Oregon undergraduates for the best essay submitted on a subject pertaining to the principles of free government. This contest is sponsored annually in several colleges throughout the country.

Subject of the essays is to be, "Is the Closed Shop Consistent with the Principles of Free Government?" Prizes offered this year are: first prize, $25.00, and second prize, $10.00.

Dr. Waldo Schumacher, chairman of the committee in charge of the contest announced the rules to be: 1. Students competing must register with the chairman of the committee; 2. Contestants are expected to include their bibliography, and cite references in footnotes; 3. Essays must be typewritten, and two copies submitted; 4. The committee reserves the right to withhold either or both awards. The essays are due on or before June 1, 1947. Additional information may be secured from the members of the committee: Dr. Schumacher, Dr. F. V. Cahill, and Dr. J. T. Ganoe.

DAVID GOLIATH ON ICE!

WATCH WHAT HAPPENS WHEN ICE-BOATING CHAMPION ART SIEBKE MATCHES HIS TINY SKEETER CLASS YACHT AGAINST ONE OF THE GIANTS OF THE SPORT.

IT'S A LONG SHOT—BUT IT'S THE ONLY WAY I'LL EVER CATCH HIM—HERE GOES!

ON THE LAST LEG OF LAST LAP, CHAMPION SIEBKE (E-123) IS TRAPPED IN THE "WIND SHADOW" OF HIS OPPONENT'S LARGER SAIL...

THOSE BIG CLASS YACHTS CAN DO WAY OVER 100/ LOOK—WHY IS SIEBKE BEARING OFF LIKE THAT?

HM—M—OH, I GET IT. A BEAUTIFUL MANEUVER, IF HE CAN MAKE IT!

BECAUSE ICE-BOATS PICK UP SPEED TREMENDOUSLY AS THEY ARE POINTED FARTHER FROM THE DIRECTION OF WIND, SIEBKE BEARS OFF SHARPLY TO STARBOARD, GAMBLING ON HIS ABILITY TO TRAVEL THE LONGER ZIGZAG COURSE IN FASTER TIME THAN OPPONENT CAN COVER THE DIRECT COURSE — BUT THAT'S NOT ALL OF THE MANEUVER...

QUARTER MILE OUT FROM THE DIRECT COURSE, THE CHAMPION COMES ABOUT ON A STARBOARD TACK AND RACES ON TO CUT OFF HIS OPPONENT*

IF I CAN JUST GET THERE—I CAN FORCE HIM ABOUT!

LOOK AT HIM! THEY'RE GOING TO CRASH!

NO, THE BIG FELLOW WILL HAVE TO COME ABOUT AND HE'LL LOSE HIS SPEED—COME ON, ART!

*RACING RULES PROVIDE THAT YACHT ON PORT TACK MUST GIVE WAY TO YACHT CROSSING COURSE ON STARBOARD TACK

HE DID IT! HE MADE HIM COME ABOUT!

THERE'S YOUR FINISH—AND ART SIEBKE IS THE WINNER!

TAKES A LOT OF EXPERIENCE TO BRING OFF A MANEUVER LIKE THAT, ART

YES, EXPERIENCE IS THE BEST TEACHER—IN ICE-BOATING AND EVEN IN CIGARETTES! I LEARNED FROM EXPERIENCE THAT CAMELS SUIT ME BEST

CAMELS ALWAYS HIT THE SPOT WITH ME

● "In ice-boating," says Champion Siebke, "I've had years of experience. My experience with different cigarettes came during the wartime shortage when I couldn't always get Camels and had to smoke different brands. That's when I learned how much I appreciated Camels!"

EXPERIENCE TAUGHT ME THE BIG DIFFERENCE IN CIGARETTE QUALITY. I LEARNED THAT CAMELS SUIT MY "T-ZONE" TO A "T"

J. Arthur Siebke, OPEN CHAMPION, EASTERN ICE YACHTING ASSOCIATION

Camels

YOUR "T-ZONE" WILL TELL YOU

T for Taste... T for Throat... that's your proving ground for any cigarette. See if Camels don't suit your "T-Zone" to a "T."
