Science Club Hears Beck on Film Values

A speech on "The Educational Value of Films" was given last night by Dr. L. F. Beck of the psychology department at the meeting of the Social Science club.

The first part of Dr. Beck's speech was devoted to the production and distribution of training films by the armed forces. A discussion of some approaches to new film production in the area of the social sciences was presented in the second part.

The meetings of the Social Science club are held on the third Monday of the month at the Faculty club and are open only to members.

Well, pop has gone back home... taken the car from junior, and has less money than when he started to Eugene. It was a good week-end with lots doing. Yeoman Malcolm MacGregor came through with the King of Hearts over the protests of "Senator Claghorn" Carmichael... from the south that is... that the only king he will officially recognize is cotton. Jerry Foley who is one of the 300th best dressed men in the law school is not anti-social. Young Foley is held in great reverence by fellow barristers. His current campaign directed against the Emerald is termed "Foley's Folly" by his colleagues. The happiest man alive Saturday night was Delts' George "the grin" Kikes. He did it Saturday night at the park when Aopi Betsy Youmans took his pin. Wotta cutie! The high country yell was heard clear to Marcola when Fiji Cammy Echanis hung his brass on pink palacer Lourana Preston. L'il Carolyn Tyler has pledged the "Wednesday and Friday nights Ladies Club" since Beta Thomas Edlefsen took off to labor in Portland. He will commute. The Phi Psi box took another drubbing when Dick Callahan planted his cop's badge on Chi O Joan Cambell. New versions of the SAE Stomp were tried at the Park Sat. nite when Chi OH's Dodo Mised and Bob Wallace put A. Murray to shame. This gance was called the SAE Stomp with a 7-Up Shuffle. SPE Jack Marshall de-planted and re-planted his joolry on Hen Hall's Pat McDowell in the short space of hours, 12. The mammoth cup awarded to the Sig Ep's for winning the campus clean-up during dads' day has attracted the eye of Hubie Williamson for use as bronze measuring glass for coca cola. Hearts broke all over Eugene when Gamma Phi's Sally 'de braids' Timmins retired from circulation. Some Feegee's have all the luck. Even saw "POP" Rogers at the Park. His old bones sounded like the door of Inner Sanctum when he danced by... but can he pick 'em! With this good weather... it won't be long.—Pd. Adv.
