

YWCA Publishes Bi-monthly Paper

The Winnette, a publication about YWCA activities, edited by Garie Bradley, is being distributed among Y members this week.

The magazine is to be mimeographed bi-monthly in the Y bungalow. This is the second edition. The name is taken from Winnie the Y girl, which members of the YWCA jokingly call themselves.

The following list of fraternity pledges was announced by the dean of men's office:

DISCOGRAPHY

There are 88 keys on a piano . . . 52 of these keys are white and the number of black keys may be obtained by a simple bit of calculus. A number of recording artists have been utilizing all 88 keys of late in producing outstanding albums. Johnny Guarieri was the first to come out with an album for Majestic which includes the titles "Stars Fell on Alabama," "Temptation," and "Flying Home." The latter disc is outstanding for this is about the first time a pianist has recorded the tune without copying the styling of Art Tatum.

Eddie (Da-dah-da-dah-da-dah) Heywood is another lad who has recently released an album under the Decca label. Eddie, of course, does his ever popular "Begin The Beguine" in the album with seven new sides thrown in to boot. These sides include "On the Alamo," "Temptation," and "Laura."

The King of Cole offers a new single which should go as far as his "For Sentimental Reasons." It is "I Want to Thank Your Folks" on a Capitol label with "You Should Have Told Me" on the south side. Cole also does some fine straight no vocal work in the new Capitol Jerome Kern album which boasts nine Capitol recording artists. The tune is "Smoke Gets in Your Eyes" and so far the music mags haven't found a rating system to equalize their ravings for it. If you like some of the older Cole items, you'll want to hear "Beautiful Moons Ago" and "Let's Spring One" cut on the Excelsior label before Cole was Mercerized by Capitol. And let it be said to all, including a disc jockey who hangs around at 1400 on your radio dial, "Lord Calvert," as far as music is concerned, is a pseudonym used by Nat Cole. Proof of this can be obtained by listening to a Key-note disc of "The Way You Look Tonight" with a dead give-away on the flip-over called "Airiness A La NAT."

If you're a veteran who longs for the many happy days spent in the South Pacific, perhaps a new Andrews Sisters disc will transport them vicariously. The song is based on a native tune of Guam and is called "My Dearest Uncle Sam." If you turn the platter over, you'll find a new pressing of Patty, Maxene, and La Verne's "Lullaby of Broadway."

And by the way, if you've had trouble finding such items as Erskin Hawkin's "I've Got a Right to Cry," Duke Ellington's "Mood Indigo," and Count Basie's original "One O'Clock Jump," you'll find them—if you rush—to Graves Music Company—the one-stop record shop.
