Annual Campus Red Cross Drive Gets Underway Today

By HANS WOLD
Staff Writer, The Emerald

The annual campus Red Cross drive is scheduled to roll today, with a variety of entertainment and campaign contests planned for students during the drive week, March 1-7.

Magician Bill Bishop is set to exhibit an ample sample from his backlog of tricks in an entertainment program at the Side sponsored on behalf of the Red Cross drive by Gamma Alpha Chi, women's advertising honorary and Alpha Delta Sigma, men's advertising honorary, Monday at 4 p. m. Sam Gillette will MC the show, and a campus quartet composed of Norm Lamb, Norm Henwood, Don Edwards, and Bob Moran are slated to send the assembly with some fancy crooning.

Additional Side entertainment for Wednesday and Thursday programs is in the planning stage, according to campaign publicity chairman Mary Anne Hansen.

Cups Are Placed

Paper collection cups bearing the names of all campus living organizations have been placed in the co-op with an eye to determining which house has the most spontaneous group of Red Cross contributors. In charge of the co-op drive is Phyllis Litzenger.

Members of Kwama and Skull and Dagger, the sophomore honoraries will make a tour of all living organizations Monday and Tuesday, speaking briefly to each group at luncheon or dinner on behalf of the Red Cross drive.

"Disaster Strikes," a movie depicting service rendered by the Red Cross in areas of America where human suffering has been acute will be shown at 4:15 p. m. today, and on each day through Friday in Gerlinger's Alumni hall. The picture serves to emphasize this year's national slogan, "The Red Cross carries on."

House representatives are requested to turn in donations Friday, March 7 from 6 to 8 p. m. to Marilyn Stratton, Delta Gamma, or Richard Logan, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, and are asked to call them after 10:30 p. m. nightly during the drive.

Libe Plaza Dance Slated for Tuesday

The library plaza is the setting for the first open-air dance of the year to be staged Tuesday from 6 to 7:30 p. m. as an entertainment feature of the campus Red Cross drive.

Music for the rally hop will be furnished by Herb Widmer and his orchestra, and will be an informal dance with stag groups from both men's and women's living organizations gathering at the libe. George Watkins will act as MC.

All houses are requested to move their dinner schedules ahead to allow time for students to attend, and living organizations are urged to have a 100 per cent turnout for the dance.

Margaret Harrison and Nancy Bedingfield are co-chairmen of the dance committee.

The hop will be canceled in case

Federation Group Needs Volunteers

An urgent appeal for student participation in Oregon Federation work was issued by Harry Glickman, federation director, yesterday.

Petition blanks for the position of Oregon Federation director and committee members in the various cities of Oregon for next summer may be secured in the Federation office, room 8, Friendly.

Those selected will furnish information concerning the University to high school students, and plan a meeting which Les Anderson, alumni secretary; Glickman; and a representative of the athletic staff will attend. Glickman stated that Ann Woodworth, Oregon Federation secretary, will be in the office from 11 to 12 a. m. on Monday, Wednesday and Friday to issue petition blanks. Both Miss Woodworth and Glickman will be in the office each afternoon after 4 p. m.

Petitions will be accepted for the following cities: Portland, Oregon City, Astoria, Tillamook, McMinnville, Forest Grove, Hillsboro, The Dalles, Hood River, Pendleton, La-Grande, Baker, Ontario, Burns, Bend, Salem, Albany, Corvallis, Eugene, Springfield, Roseburg, Cottage Grove, Coos Bay-North Bend, (Please turn to page three)

180 Voice Chorus To Sing Tuesday

The 180-voice University Choral Union will present a public concert in McArthur court next Tuesday evening, according to Donald W. Allton, conductor of the group. Open to the public, the concert will begin at 8:15 p. m.

Choral Union was first organized in 1944 by Allton as a women's chorus of 70 voices. Since that time it has grown to its present size and now consists of both male and female voices.

Membership in the group is dependent upon tryouts but it is not a music major's organization, Allton said. It is composed of students from all schools and departments with diversified interests who enjoy singing together, he said.

This year's Choral Union is composed of 180 members who were selected from a group of over 500 who tried out last fall.

Black Tint to Disguise Red Hair Of Miss Clouston in Chinese Play

By LeJEUNE GRIFFITH

Louise Clouston's lovely red hair will go by the boards in preference to a black tint next week when she appears as Plum Blossom, or Moy Fah Loy, in "The Yellow Jacket," Chinese costume play which opens on the University stage March 6. Oriental makeup and costumes will complete the transformation.

Miss Clouston, a freshman majoring in drama, is looking forward to the Sunday dress rehearsal when she can wear the gorgeous, authentic Chinese garments selected for the presentation. Even her worry over the proper manipulation of her fan in public—as an unmarried woman in the play she is supposed to cover her face with her fan in public—doesn't dull the anticipation over the unusual costumes.

Speaking of the oddities of Chinese theater conventions, Miss Clouston said that heaven is represented on the stage by a balcony at the back. Characters who die during the play appear in heaven at intervals to speak to the struggling mortals and direct their paths. Plum Blossom does some spiritual kibitzing herself when she helps her hero, Wu Hoo Git, escape from a spider which entangles him.

Miss Clouston hails from Pendleton where she participated in high school productions of "Ghost Want-

Ducat Deadline Today

All persons planning to attend the Oregon-Oregon State basketball game tonight should secure exchange tickets at the ticket office in McArthur court before noon today, Mrs. Dee Wrenn, ticket manager, has announced.

ASUO cards will not be honored at the door tonight without an exchange ticket.

Hays, Bray, Wren, Seeborg See Last ND Action; Ducks Seek Third Place

Four Webfoots—Ken Hays, Bob Wren, George Bray, and Roy Seeborg—will be completing their Northern Division basketball careers tonight when Oregon and Oregon State meet in the final game of the regular season for both clubs in McArthur court. The Beavers clinched the flag on their inland empire trip last week, but the Webfoots need a win tonight to gain third place in the ND for the season.

Four OSC regulars will also be playing their last division game tonight. They are Red Rocha, Lew Beck, Erland Anderson, and Morris Silver. The contest is destined to be a rough and tumble affair from the starting whistle, and both squads have several pre-game cripples listed. Anderson and Alex Peterson are slated for limited action for the Beavers, and Roger Wiley and Ed Dick are on Oregon's doubtful list.

Rocha Shooting for Title

A menace to the Webfoots tonight will be high scoring Rocha who needs only eight points to edge out Washington's Jack Nichols as the 1947 scoring champ of the Northern Division.

The league champions go into the game as heavy favorites, but Oregon's chance to climb a notch in the division standings, and to prevent the Beavers from sweeping the first series in 14 years should make them a fighting-mad outfit.

Although Wiley is nursing a foot injury, he is expected to be given the starting nod at center for the Ducks. Starting forwards should be Dick Wilkins and Hays, and Stan Williamson and Bob Lavey will likely be chosen as guards. The OSC lineup will probably be Anderson, Crandall, Rocha, Beck and Silver.

Rally Dance to Follow UO-OSC Game Tonight

A rally dance sponsored by Skull and Dagger, sophomore men's honorary, is planned for Gerlinger hall following the Oregon State basketball game tonight.

Herb Widmer and his band will provide the music. Admission is 60 cents a couple and sport clothes will be in order.

Bill Bishop, sophomore in liberal arts, will act as master of ceremonies and present some of his tricks of magic.

Evans Cantrell, senior in mathematics, will sing "Bring Back the Sun," a recently composed song by Helen McFettridge, sophomore in music.

A trio composed of Sally Watson, Shirley Phillips, and Helen McFettridge will also sing one of Miss McFettridge's original compositions.

Other vocal music will feature Bill Seal and his Hawaiians.

Webfooters have planned other entertainment for the dance intermission.

This dance is the first in a series being planned by the University honoraries on a non-profit basis in response to demands by the students for more mixers.

Outing Club To Hold River Romp Sunday

The Outing club will hold a hike down to the Willamette river tomorrow afternoon beginning at 3 p. m., according to Lou Ann Morrison, president of the organization.

The hike will begin at Gerlinger hall, and all girls planning to participate are requested to bring a sack lunch. All members of the club should bring $1.35 for club emblems.

Miss Morrison urged that all members attend because election of new officers will be held prior to the hike. Any girls, whether or not they are members, are welcome to participate in the hike, she said.

Ticket Sale Announced

Tickets for the Beaux Arts ball will go on sale Monday, March 3, in the upstairs drafting room at the art school. Art students are urged to purchase their tickets for this event as soon as possible as the sale will be limited and only a pre-sale. Betty Donaldson and Ann Hite are co-chairmen of the ticket committee. The tickets will cost $2.00 per couple.

1947 Cover Girl Finalists Revealed

Four finalists in the Emerald Cover Girl contest, representing the advertising, sports, editing, and news departments, will be introduced to the public preceding the Oregon-Oregon State game tonight. The introduction will climax a pre-game program planned by the Oregon rally squad.

Marilyn Turner, Pi Phi freshman, will represent the ad side; Gloria Albertson, Hendricks hall freshman, will carry the banner for the sports side; Marilyn Sage, Pi Phi senior, will enter for the edit page; and June Johnson, Chi O senior, will be the news side candidate.

Full Page Spread

The winner of the Cover Girl contest will be featured in a full-page picture of the Emerald's spring issue. Four judges have been appointed to determine the winner, and, though they will be present at the introduction tonight, their decision will not be made public until the Cover Girl issue is released.

Judges are King of Hearts (1946) Marv Rasmussen; King of Hearts (1947) Malcolm MacGregor; Alumni Secretary Les Anderson; and ASUO Manager Dick Williams.

Student Reads Emerald, Gets Blast From Prof

Is the Emerald more important than good grades? One University student apparently thinks so.

The following notation by an English professor was recently scribbled on an avid Emerald reader's lit paper.

"The paper has no point. It is mere summary. There is no analysis. There is no penetration, no dissection, no light thrown on the book. It is a hasty and facile bit of day work analogous to your classroom habit of reading newspapers during the lectures."
