

Presentation of Original Papers Planned for Science Meeting

Presentation by students of original papers on any science topic will highlight the annual Oregon Student Science conference, to be held at Reed college on April 26, D. K. Gillespie, graduate assistant in the department of biology, announced yesterday.

Graduate as well as undergraduate students are eligible to attend this yearly conference, which is held for the purpose of the exchange of original thought and research among students on scientific topics.

Six Ducks Selected

Six Oregon students have already been selected, Gillespie reported, but he requested any others who are interested in attending the meeting to contact him. Papers, to be fifteen minutes in length, may be prepared on any science subject, but research and writing must be original. Abstracts of papers to be given should be in to Gillespie by this weekend.

Those students attending from the University are: from the department of biology, Mrs. Ruby F. Ramey and Donald Neil O'Connell; from the chemistry department, William Emerson White; E. K. Yost from the mathematics department, from the department of geology, John Gierhart; and Lloyd Schilberg from the physics department.

Conference Begins at 9

The conference is scheduled to begin at 9:30 a.m. and will probably continue until 5:00 in the afternoon. Transportation will be furnished from the University.

Educators to Meet In Inland Empire

Four educators from the University school of education will attend the Inland Empire Education association conference, to be held in Spokane, Wash., April 9, 10, and 11.

To attend in an advisory capacity as a member of the executive committee of the association will be Dr. James R. Jewell, professor and dean of the school.

Dr. Hugh B. Wood, professor of education, is chairman of the Northwest curriculum council and will preside over meetings of that group.

Dr. Harold W. Bernard, assistant professor of education, is chairman of the psychology research division and will preside over two sectional meetings.

Fred L. Stetson, professor of education, is president of the Northwest Association of Colleges and Preparatory Schools, which includes the states of Washington, Oregon, California, Idaho, Montana and Utah.

Music Honorary Slates Benefit Tea

A benefit Easter Monday tea, the proceeds of which will go into a scholarship fund to aid girls studying in the University school of music, will be given by the Phi Beta alumnae chapter April 7 at the Alpha Phi house, from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m.

Decorations will feature a Chinese theme, Mrs. Daniel D. Gage, general chairman for the tea, reports. A program will be presented by the active chapter and women's organizations and other music groups. The public is invited to attend.

Members of the active chapter will meet guests at the door. Mrs. John J. Rogers and Mrs. Charlotte Anderson, Alpha Phi house mother, will receive the guests at the top of the foyer steps; and the formal receiving line will consist of Mrs. W. J. Cloyes, president of the hostess group; Mrs. Frank Carll, national president of Phi Beta; Mrs. Lowell Chase, president of the active chapter; Mrs. James Rodman Jr., and Mrs. C. F. Wilford.

Pouring will be Mrs. Anson B. Cornell, president of the Phi Beta Patronesses; Mrs. Harry K. Newburn; Mrs. Paul C. Packer, and Mrs. J. H. Beck, president of Mu Phi Patronesses.

Campus Lost, Found

The return of the rain should make co-eds forage for the 19 bandanas, 13 pairs and 4 single gloves, and P. R. Balsiger will need his leather jacket.

Also included in the shelves and drawer are 11 check books, 15 fountain pens, 10 combs, 5 purses, a compact, lipstick brush, key case, a key, slide rule, pencils and erasers.

The University of Oregon library boasts a total of more than 380,000 books.

Picnics at Fiji meadows are under the supervision of the student affairs committee.
