

Beryl Howard Gets Regional 'Y' Post

Beryl Howard, junior in English, has been appointed finance chairman of the regional council of the Pacific Northwest student YWCA, it was announced this week.

The appointment was made to fill the unexpired term of a University of Washington student, and was made by Mrs. Margaret Norton, Portland, regional executive secretary. Representatives from schools in Montana, Idaho, Washington, and Oregon comprise the council.

Martha Thorsland, senior in English, is also on the council as chairman for the World Student Service Fund. Miss Howard's term will expire with the regular elections which are to be held this summer at the Seabeck conference, Seabeck, Wash.

Senator Would Retreat

Senator Carmichael's parting words were, "Suh! Iff'n Ah'm nominated to this august honoh . . . I shall strategically retreat to the Coburg hills . . . and even Grant couldn't find me."

It's going to be quite a contest.

Dr. Glasstone

Dr. Glasstone received his B. Sc. degree at the University of London in 1916, his M.Sc. in 1920, his Ph.D. in 1922, and his D.Sc. in 1926.

Immediately preceding the lecture will be a Sigma Xi business meeting at 7:15 in Chapman hall.

Dr. Glasstone will also speak before the chemistry seminar Tuesday at 4:30 p. m. in room 105 McClure hall.

A former Polish ambassador to London, Dr. Wladyslaw W. Kulski is the second lecturer scheduled to speak April 17 at 7:30 p. m. in Chapman hall. On the following evening he will address the International club.

Dr. Kulski received the degree of Doctor of Juris from the University of Paris in 1928 and in that same year entered the Polish diplomatic service and was a delegate of his country at the League of Nations meetings.

His books on international law and international relations were published during the war under pseudonyms for security reasons. He was also editor of the Polish White Book which was published at the end of 1939 and contained a collection of diplomatic documents relating to the origins of the war.

Shedding light on our foreign policy will be Samuel Flagg Bemis, "recognized as the greatest authority on foreign policy in the United States," who will fly down after completing a series of lectures at the University of Washington to speak on "Have We a Foreign Policy?"

"Home talent" will guest as one of the speakers in the person of

Dr. Gordon Wright, assistant professor of history at the University. Named as "one of the outstanding scholars on the campus and a wonderful speaker" by Dr.

D. E. Clark, head of the history department, Dr. Wright recently returned from Paris where he worked under the U. S. state department.

Closing the series on May 14 will be Roger Sessions, outstanding music authority, who will speak on "Trends in Contemporary Music in the United States."
