

Dance Troupe Set For UO Program

Marian Van Tuyl and Eleanor Lauer will bring their modern dance troupe to the University April 14 for one performance at Gerlinger hall. Orchesis, the modern dance honorary, will sponsor the appearance.

With choreography by both Miss Van Tuyl and Miss Lauer, the group will present a varied program, covering a wide range of styles and types.

Miss Van Tuyl and Miss Lauer came to the west coast from Chicago in 1938. While in the Middle-west, Miss Van Tuyl taught dance at the University of Chicago, and Eleanor Lauer danced as a member of her concert company.

When Miss Van Tuyl came to California to be in charge of dance work at Mills college, Miss Lauer accompanied her as her assistant and they established another professional performing company.

After the war curtailed touring performances, the Van Tuyl-Lauer group gave programs for service men at the camps and bases in the Bay area.

The Van Tuyl-Lauer group is now touring the Northwest en route to present a program for the National Conventoin of the American Association for Health, Physical Education, and Recreation in Seattle April 21.

Program Offered By Mu Phi Epsilon

The Sunday afternoon record concerts, which are held in the Browsing Room of the Library, at 4 p. m., are being sponsored this term by the Mu Phi Epsilon Alumni group.

The program for this Sunday, April 13, includes Sonata for Celio and Piano by Shostakovitch, Double Concerto in A minor by Brahms, Liebeslieder Walzer (love song waltzes) by Brahms and Roumanian Rhapsodie No. 2 by Enesco.

I.F.R. Urges Faith in God

By NANCY PETERSON

In order to survive the dangers of atomic energy, the peoples of the world will have to resort to a moral and spiritual energy found through a deep rooted belief in God, according to Muriel Lester, secretary of the International Fellowship of Reconciliation. Miss Lester spoke at a reception in her honor by the international affairs committee of the YWCA at alumni hall of Gerlinger yesterday at 4 p.m.

"The world is waiting for the ordinary people to identify themselves in spirit with the sufferers of the world and to let the spirit of God breathe through them," said Miss Lester.

Miss Lester stated that the world is a school for everybody and that although in the past ten years the forces of evil have been stronger than ever before, she has also never before met so many people deeply rooted in a spiritual life. She gave the example of Gandhi who has identified himself with the untouchables of India in order to Gandhi as humorous, not sentimental, very brilliant, and friendly with all. His method of obtaining reconciliation between the Indian peoples is merely walking among them and reasoning with them.

"Former Gestapo members found a new outlook on life through the eyes of one of their former victims because he had trained himself and held to a deep rooted belief in right," said Miss Lester. This victim, a former Norwegian student, had been tortured for four years during the war for information which he never disclosed, and then requested to join a Swedish YMCA group which was planning on touring concentration camps to help prisoners of the allied governments.

Miss Lester was introduced by Lois Greenwood, executive director of the YWCA. Dedo Misley and Laura Olson were in charge of the tea.

Judges Selected For Sing Contest

Judges for the preliminary contests which will eliminate the All-Campus Sing to 20 houses, 10 men's and 10 women's, have been chosen, and points for scoring the singers will be announced soon, John Gilbertson, Sing chairman, declared yesterday.

Miss Maude Garnett, associate professor of public school music, and Mme. Rose McGrew, professor of voice, will judge the women, who will compete April 25 from 7:30 to 9:30. The men's judges will be Donald Allton, assistant professor of music, and Herman Gelhausen, assistant professor of music. The men's elimination contest will be held April 20 from 3 to 5 p.m. The students will sing in the school of music auditorium.

Judging will be based on tonal quality, quality of song, diction, stage appearance of the ensemble, and stage appearance of the individuals. The last mentioned will count only in the final competition May 9.

The Pioneer Mother between Susan Campbell and Hendricks halls hasn't moved for years.
