Amateur shutter-jockeys (camera fans, to you) are given an opportunity to exhibit their pet pictures in the photography department of the forthcoming first edition of The Emerald Literator. Jones, photography editor of the Emerald's new art and literature supplement, will judge all photographs submitted to the Emerald editor's office.

The deadline for photographs, short stories, poetry, and essays submitted for publication in the Literator is noon, April 19. The eight-page magazine will appear with the April 26 edition of the Emerald.

All work turned in must be original and authored by students now enrolled in the University. Photographs should include technical details as to camera used, lenses, lighting, film, etc.

The winning women's house will be the one which collects the most nickels. The prize for the men will be awarded to a different house. Each time a man enters a different women's house, he chalks a tally for his living organization. For instance, one man might count ten points for his house by dancing at ten different houses. Thus the prize goes to the men's house which has the most men out and the most men circulating from house to house.

Student Tours to Mexico

ADVENTURE • EDUCATIONAL Seven Weeks Made to Order SOUTH OF THE BORDER

Once again colorful, romantic Old Mexico is calling you. This summer take advantage of the first opportunity since the war to meet your Mexican neighbors. Spend 7 exciting, educational weeks behind the scenes below the Border. Study the customs and the language of a truly foreign country. See for yourself the multitude of historic landmarks in the land of the Aztecs. Enjoy the cosmopolitan atmosphere of mile-high Mexico City.

Here is a complete all-expense tour, including 5 thrilling weekend trips to Volcans, Fortin de las Flores, Taxco, etc. If you desire you may attend summer school at National University in Mexico City. Veterans may receive up to $200 while attending. By special arrangement modern hotel apartments in picturesque settings are available for housekeeping. Costs have been held to a minimum to meet the modest budget. Tour commences June 28, return August 18.

Students, teachers, and alumni are urged to investigate this opportunity. Write today for complete details. The doors of Old Mexico are opened to you.

Telling the Editor

ABOUT THE CAMPUS

In the course of a recent casual conversation with our venerable campus policeman, the latter expressed with regret that he must perform the onerous duty of breaking up a vigorous softball game then in progress on one of the beautiful campus lawns.

It occurred to me that the burden of such a duty might to some extent be relieved with a reminder to the student body in the Emerald that if we are to continue to enjoy the gift that nature with man's care has given us, we must cooperate by exercising a restraint appropriate to a full appreciation of this gift. It is to be noted that already there are some ugly bare spots on sections of the campus greens caused by the "cutting of corners."

Since voluntary cooperation is

Voting to Name

The juniors were chosen by their houses, and were placed in the finals by five judges. The judges were: R. D. Horn, professor of English; Mrs. Marjorie Cunningham, assistant dean of women; George Hall, assistant dean of men; and Doris Spearow and June Johnson, representatives of last year's Junior Weekend court.

more to be desired than official regulation, it is suggested that the Emerald carry on a more or less continuous campaign for the maintenance of a beautiful campus.
