

Campus Hangouts to Feature Special Mom's Weekend Dinner

Students living off-campus may be confronted with a problem when they entertain their Moms who will be visiting them Mother's Weekend. For their benefit and to give all Mothers reading this, an idea of where they may eat and what they may see during the three crowded days—May 9, 10 and 11, the hospitality committee for the weekend, headed by Ann Burgess, has prepared the following information.

You may take Mom to: The Eugene or Osburn hotels, which will be serving a special dinner on Mother's day. George's Grotto, known for its fish dinners and lunches, will be open from 6:30 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Featured at Kennedy's restaurant are turkey steaks, something new which may intrigue Mom. Across Willamette is the Del Rey; don't count on taking Mom there since it won't be open—remodeling time.

East of Willamette on Broadway one may find Ernie Piluso's which will be serving a special dinner of turkey, steak, chicken or baked ham on Mother's day.

For you who have cars and wish to take Mom for a drive, it may be convenient to stop at Lew and Ev's—famous for steaks.

On campus you may take Mom to The Side, the Rush Inn, Del's or Rennells. (no need to say where they are located since most students enter at least one of these spots every day.) Take Mom to one of them; she'll enjoy the atmosphere.

And, overlooking the Mill Race is the Anchorage, known to many for its good dinners and cream pies. It's a safe bet that Mom will want to see the Mill Race.

When you wish to show the campus to Mom, remember that the Libe will be open all day Friday and Saturday; the Art museum will be open Saturday from 3 to 5 p.m.; the natural history museum will be open from 1 to 4 p.m. Friday and on Satur-
