

Webfoots Level Huskies 3-2

Lefthander Day Pitches Third Loop Win; Series Stands Even

A costly balk by Husky hurler Al Goot, in the seventh inning with Oregon Dick Burns on third, enabled the Webfoots to edge Washington 3-2 yesterday, giving Howard Hobson's team a split in the two-game northern division series.

It was the Duck's reliable left-hander John Day who turned in the mound victory, his third in as many starts, which put Oregon into second slot in the league standings, a game behind the Washington State Cougars.

Both hurlers, after shaky starts, settled down, the game being tied 2-2 after the fourth frame. The winning run scored by the locals was unearned, as the pitchers allowed only five hits in the last four and one-half innings.

Lacking his usual control at the outset, Day got into a jam in the first inning after he retired the first two batters. Jelly Anderson got a single, and both Sammy White and Boody Gilbertson walked to load the bases.

Day then cut his high, hard one loose and fanned Kay Chorlton to retire the side. The Huskies were determined, however, to break into the scoring column in the next frame.

Goot late, first up, walked, and Oregon shortstop Al Cohen booted Frank Constantino's double-play ball to put runners on first and second. Goot laid down a sacrifice advancing the men to scoring position.

When Bill Taylor popped in front of the plate to Roy Carlson for the second out, it looked like Day might squeeze out of the hole. Des Charouhas was intentionally passed, but the strategy backfired when Anderson smashed his second straight single to left field, putting in the two Washington runs.

Dangerous Sammy White was walked for the second intentional base on balls of the inning, but Gilbertson flied to Tony Crish in right field to snuff the rally, leaving the bags clogged.

Oregon came back in the bottom half of the stanza with a loner, making the score 2-1. After two were gone, Carlson hit the long, high double just inside the left field foul line, and Bartle promptly batted him across with a screaming single a foot past Goot's outstretched glove.

In the fourth, the Duck bats really came to life, Crish knocking a one-baser past second. John Kovenz followed with another hot single just out of reach of the Washington first sacker, Crish moving to third.

Carlson kept the surge alive with a one-base blow just inside first base, Crish scoring to tie the count 2-2, and Kovenz moving to third with none out. Bartle grounded out via third base, Carlson moving to second, Wohlbers, batting for Cohen, was intentionally passed, and Day whiffed, and Walt Kirsch bounced out to end the inning.

As in the final Washington State contest, it was the seventh inning which spelled victory for the Webfoots. With one down, Dick Burns hit a hot bouncer off Goot's glove, and when the Washington pitcher tossed wildly to first, Burns went to second on the two-base error.

Bob Santee received a political walk, Crish forcing him at second and Burns moving to third. Goot went into his stretch, watching Crish take his lead off, thinking that the Duck outfielder was going down, Goot wheeled to throw to first but nobody was covering. Rather than throw the ball away, he held on to it, balking in the decisive tally.

Washington made a belated rally in the eighth, with White, the first hitter, singling sharply to right field, and promptly stealing second.

Gilbertson skied out to Crish, and after Bartle took Charleton's towering foul in short right, White moved on to third. Day bore down and whiffed pinchhitter Jim Chorlton on three straight pitches to retire the Huskies.

Carlson paced the Webfoots at the plate with two hits, one a double, while Anderson with three singles and Goot with two, accounted for five of the six Washington hits. The loss was the first of the season for the lanky Washington hurler in three starts.

BOX SCORE

Washington	AB	R	H	PO	A
Taylor, cf	4	0	0	1	0
Charouhas, ss	4	0	0	4	3
Anderson, lf	4	0	3	2	0
White, 1b	2	0	1	9	1
Gilbertson, 3b, 2b	3	0	0	0	3
K. Charlton, rf	4	0	0	1	0
Tate, 2b	2	1	0	1	3
J. Charlton, 3b	1	0	0	1	0
Constantino, c	4	1	0	4	0
Gook, p	3	0	2	1	2
Totals	31	2	6	24	12
Oregon	AB	R	H	PO	A
Kirsch, 2b	4	0	1	4	4
Burns, cf	4	1	1	2	0
Santee, lf	3	0	0	2	0
Crish, rf	3	1	1	5	0
Kovenz, 3b	4	0	1	0	1
Carlson, c	4	1	2	5	0
Bartle, 1b	4	0	1	7	0
Cohen, ss	1	0	0	1	2
Smith, ss	2	0	1	1	1
Day, p	3	0	0	0	3
Wohlbers *	0	0	0	0	0
Totals	32	3	8	27	11

Errors: Charouhas, Gook, Cohen 2; runs batted in: Anderson 2, Bartle, Carlson, two base hits: Carlson. Sacrifices: Gook, Taylor. Stolen Bases: White. Double plays: Charouhas (unassisted), Cohen to Kirsch to Bartle, Kovenz to Bartle. Strike-outs: Day 4, Gook 4. Walks: Day 6, Gook 3. Balk: Gook. Earned runs: off Gook 2. Wild pitch: Gook. Umpires: Westover and Barnes.

Golf Schedule

The University of Oregon varsity golf schedule for the remainder of the season:

- Friday, May 2—Idaho at Eugene.
- Saturday, May 3—WSC at Eugene.
- Saturday, May 10—OSC at Eugene.
- Saturday, May 24—Northern division championship at Moscow, Idaho.

SPORTS STAFF

- Don Fair
- Wally Hunter
- Bernie Hammerbeck
- George Skorney
- Jim Wallace
- Dick Cramer
- Wally Adams
- Al Pietchman

Cougars Dump Idaho

PCC STANDINGS NORTHERN DIVISION

	W.	L.	Pct.
Washington State	6	2	.750
Oregon	4	2	.667
Washington	5	3	.625
Oregon State	3	3	.500
Idaho	0	8	.000

MOSCOW, Idaho, April 29 (AP)—John Wilburn's triple, only extra-base hit of the day, interrupted a pitching duel today and helped Washington State college defeat the University of Idaho's baseball team 4 to 1.

Idaho outhit the Cougars five to four in bowling for its eighth straight northern division defeat, but the Vandals made four errors to one for Washington State. A high wind delayed the game at times and kept hits short.

Until the fourth inning Washington State's Wally Kramer and Idaho's Francis Auer were engaged in a lively pitching duel with the score tied at 1-1.

Then the Cougars' Don Aries reached first base on Cliff Masingill's error, advanced on Joe Hemel's sacrifice, and scored on Tom Marier's single, to break the deadlock.

Idaho's only run came in the third inning when centerfielder Len Eybee scored on Tobey Masingill's single after reaching second on an error.

W.S.C. . . . . .010 300 000—4 4 1
Idaho . . . . .001 000 000—1 5 4

Kramer and Wilburn: Auer and Viro, Rose (9).

John Wesley Johnson was the first president of the University of Oregon.

MARYANNE HANSEN . . . Oregon coed is included in the Multnomah Athletic club swimming team entered in the Nautical Women's Senior Indoor meet scheduled for Seattle this weekend.

Unbeaten IM Trio To Risk Records

By JIM WALLACE

Three high-riding swimming squads will place their undefeated records on the block this afternoon when intramural play is resumed after a week lay off.

The bulk of the action will be in league III where the Fijis, Chi Psis, and Beta squads, all boasting undefeated strings and currently tied for first place in that loop, meet the second division teams of the circuit, Campbell club, Nestor hall, and the Yeomen.

The Fijis should have little trouble slipping by the last place Yeomen but the Chi Psi sluggers may find the going a bit rougher when they square off against the ever-dangerous Campbell club. The Beta squad, undefeated but held to a 7-7 tie by the Campbell aggregation, should be able to maintain their perfect record by putting down Nestor hall.

The fourth game of the afternoon will be a league IV tussle that sees the Awful Awfuls pitted against Stan Ray hall. Both teams have been defeated but the Awfuls have posted one more win than the gorm team and should chalk up a not-too-easy victory to preserve their loop standing.

Wednesday April 30th & Thursday May 1st

Cash Paid for Books

Whether used here or not
University Coop
Long's College Book Co.
Columbus, Ohio buyers

University 'CO-OP'