Wallace Blames Greek Loan For Breakdown at Moscow

CLEVELAND, May 2—(AP)—Henry A. Wallace said Friday the recent conference of foreign ministers at Moscow "ended in deadlock and failure," and that any hopes for its success "were shattered when President Truman announced his four hundred million dollar anti-Soviet crusade.

The former vice president and cabinet member also asserted that Senator Arthur Vandenberg and John Foster Dulles, a member of the American delegation to the Moscow conference, were "exploiting" an emergency in Europe "for the wrong ends."

In a speech delivered to a meeting sponsored jointly by a local committee and the New Republic, of which Wallace is editor, he renewed his attacks on President Truman's proposal for a loan to Greece and Turkey.

Atomic Danger Seen

WASHINGTON, May 2 (AP)—A famed atomic scientist said Friday there is "grave danger" that America may lose its lead in scientific achievement.

Dr. S. A. Goudsmit, Northwestern University physicist, declared that Germany lost the atomic bomb race because of stupidity and a clash of political dogma.

"It could happen here, too," he added in an address prepared for the American physical society.

N. Y. Welcomes Aleman With Noisy Celebration

NEW YORK, May 2 (AP)—President Miguel Aleman of Mexico received New York's noisy endorsement of a good neighbor policy Friday as he drove past cheering thousands in city hall where he declared western hemispheric solidarity is a "first step" in the purpose pursued by the United Nations.

Police estimated 1,500,000 lined his route down to and through lower Manhattan despite a light rain that shrouded the great towers of the financial district rising above the flag-bedecked streets.

Lilienthal Predicts Atom Blunder Cost

NEW YORK, May 2—(AP)—David E. Lilienthal, chairman of the atomic energy commission, says of atomic energy that "if in dealing with it we are too stupid, we may not have to worry about the ridicule of our descendants. We may have no descendants."

Dirigible Authority Sess Air Future

LAKEHURST, N. J., May 2—(AP)—Dr. Hugo Eckener, noted German dirigible pioneer who said he had come to the United States to serve as a consultant for the Goodyear corporation, predicted Friday that freight of the future would be moved mainly by lighter and stronger airships that would cross the Atlantic in two days.

Illinois Settles Strike

CHICAGO, May 2—(AP)—Settlement of the Illinois Bell Telephone strike on the basis of a $4 weekly general wage increase was announced Friday by federal and state labor conciliators.

Regional Director James J. Spillane of the U. S. conciliation service said that the settlement was subject to ratification by members of the three striking NFTW-affiliated unions.
