

YWCA Cabinet Guests at OSC

The University YWCA cabinet traveled to Corvallis last night as guests of the Oregon State round table. The women attended a dinner and meeting for Miss Fern Babcock, national program coordinator of the YWCA.

Miss Babcock will be a guest of the University today and tomorrow to discuss program planning for student Christian organizations. She will meet with the Y directors at 11 a.m. today, the Y luncheon club at noon, the advisory board at 1 p.m. and the Duckling counselors and junior advisers at 4 p.m. At 5:30 p.m. the Y cabinet is honoring Miss Babcock at a dinner at the Anchorage.

Joan Williams is in charge of the schedule. A former regional secretary of the Southwest YWCA, Miss Babcock is also the author of a program book used by both the YWCA and the YMCA.

Committee Head Says Weekend Housing Filled

Although requests are still coming in for housing accommodations for mothers and guests during Mother's Weekend, no more will be accepted at this late date, said Eeryl Howard, housing committee chairman.

"We have found rooms for all who have requested them, but for those students with last minute guests will have to try to find room in living organizations," she added.

Approximately 30 visitors for the weekend will be taken in by Eugene townspeople to help alleviate the housing pressure at the University.
