FRIDAY, MAY 9, 1947

A gay and colorful Junior Weekend, resplendent with all the sparkle and fun of Gay Nineties days, will today climax many week's preparation as a jam-packed activity list looms for students, mothers, and guests.

First feature of the festivities will be the picnic and the queen's coronation at noon today, as well as tapping of several junior organizations. A terrace dance and baseball game will fill the afternoon schedule, while the All-Campus Sing will ring out tonight in McArthur Court.

A float parade and Junior Prom, with music by Les Brown, will highlight tomorrow's schedule.

ROYALLY,

Queen Sue Fernimen, Junior Weekend's first lady, will ascend her throne today at the all-campus picnic on the Old Campus when Prime Minister Bob Moran places the crown on her blonde hair. The court procession will take place at 12:40, when Oregon students, dismissed from all Friday afternoon and Saturday classes, gather to witness the coronation.

Gay Oregon Weekend Beckons Moms Today

Registration in Johnson Hall Starts Mothers' Weekend Proceedings

Mother's Weekend at Oregon will open officially today with registration of mothers in Johnson hall from 11 to 12 noon and 2:30 to 5 this afternoon. Registration will continue tomorrow from 9:30 to 12 noon.

Events for Mom

Main events scheduled for Mom, in addition to Junior Weekend festivities, are the business meeting of the mothers' executive council at 2:30 today in the Guild theater, Johnson hall; the general business meeting of all mothers Saturday at 9:30 in the Guild theater; and the mother's tea to be held in the alumni hall of Gerlinger from 2 to 4:30 tomorrow.

Mothers are asked to come to the tea early. The float parade will continue past McArthur court to enable the mothers to see it without leaving the tea.

Prom Invitation

Students are urged to bring their mothers to the prom, where seats will be reserved for them in the south balcony. They are especially invited to come during intermission at 10:30. There will be no charge and punch will be served.

DECORATING FOR TERRACE DANCE. . .
