

Husky Nine Clouts Ducks 8-5

Washington Gains Second Spot One Game in Front of Oregon

SEATTLE, May 12—(AP)—The Washington Huskies spotted the Oregon Ducks four runs in the first inning and then went on to chalk up an 8 to 5 victory in their Northern Division baseball series opener today.

The win gave Washington undisputed hold on second place, one game behind the league-leading Washington State Cougars and a game in front of Oregon.

The Ducks got their four first-inning runs on three hits, two Husky errors and a pair of walks and added another in the second on two more singles and an error.

After a wobbly start, Max Soriano stopped the visitors the rest of the way.

Four doubles produced three runs in the first for the Huskies to put them back in the ball game.

Bill Gissberg, Boody Gilbertson and K. Chorlton all hit safely to manufacture three runs in the third, a hit-and-run play and a double steal by Gissberg and Sammy White added the final pair in the fourth.

Hal Saltzman, starting Duck pitcher, got into an argument with the umpire in the fourth and was ousted from the game. His successor, John Day, had the Huskies eating out of his hands.

Beaver JVs Win To Square Series

A three-run rally in the sixth inning by the Oregon State junior varsity resulted in a 7-3 defeat for the Oregon jayvee baseball team last Saturday afternoon on Howe field.

By virtue of their victory, the Beavers evened up the "little civil war" series at two games each.

The Oregon State jayvees pounded Duck hurler Norm Henwood for 12 hits. The Ducklings committed three errors, while OSC Pitcher Bob Knapp scattered nine Dick hits for only three runs.

Unbeaten Oregon Golfers Rap OSC

Oregon's varsity golf team outclubbed Oregon State 20 to 7 at the Eugene country club Saturday for the second victory over the Beavers in the current conference season and the seventh consecutive dual match win.

The Webfoots now boast decisive wins over last year's defending champion Washington Huskies, Idaho, Washington State, Portland University, University of British Columbia, plus the double victory over Oregon State.

Sid Milligan's divoteers will be idle until May 24 when they journey to Moscow, Idaho, for the Northern Division championship round over the nine-hole Palouse layout.

Oregon found the Beavers pesky in the morning best ball round, but found the range in the singles competition. Webfoots Lou Stafford and Jim Dunahoo dropped three points to John Frey and Bill Johnson, and Ralph Dichter and Lee Lindquist picked up another half point from Glenn Spivey and Dom Provost to give the Ducks a slim 1½ point margin

The Webfoots tightened up in singles competition, however, and scored 14½ points compared to 3½ for Oregon State.

A trio of Oregon golfers—Stafford, Spivey, and George Kikes—were the only ones able to find the range. They shared medalist honors with even par 72's.

Only four men will represent Oregon in the conference championship instead of the customary six, and medal play is scheduled (with no give putts), rather than match play.

Stafford and Spivey will probably hold their positions but the battle for the remaining berths will be between Rod Taylor, Bob Sederstrom, Dunahoo, Kikes, Provost, and Bob Eckstrom. Taylor moved up to the No. 4 position in front of Sederstrom in a challenge match last week.

Van Brocklin Paces 26-19 White Win In First Preview of Aiken Method

Coach Jim Aiken treated Junior Weekend visitors to some real football Saturday when he turned loose his grid-ders in a full-length intra-squad fray. The Whites, with Quarterback Norm Van Brocklin running over one touchdown and passing for three more, edged out the Green eleven, 26 to 19.

Little time was wasted after the game started before the first touchdown was scored. The Whites, with Don Stanton doing the booting, kicked off to the Greens. Two plays gave the Green squad no gains, and they elected to kick out. But a stiff wind stopped Fullback Ken Maine's punt and dropped the ball on their own 20-yard line. Two running plays by Left Halfback George Bell and Fullback Bob Koch of the Whites put the pigskin on the third, and from there Van Brocklin crashed over on a quarterback sneak. The try for point failed.

Van Brocklin to Garza
Five minutes later, from his own 30, Van Brocklin tossed a long pass to Left End Dan Garza who broke clear to paydirt. Bob Sanders, who played a limited amount on offensive but showed plenty of power, made his second try good, to make the count 13 to 0.

That ended the scoring for the first period, but shortly after the second quarter started the pitching quarterback let loose another one, this time to Right End Lou Robinson who snagged the ball on the midfield stripe and galloped down to the 15 before he was stopped. On the next play the performance was repeated and this time Robinson went over. The conversion failed, and the score read 19 to 0.

Greens Open Up
It looked as though it was going to be a one-sided affair, but the Greens started opening up with an attack of their own. On a hand-off play from Bill Abbey, Halfback Bob Oas cut through right tackle and raced through the secondary from his own 30 to the 7 yard line before he was hit. Quarterback Abbey called a passing play on the next try, and when all the receivers were covered he packed the leather through the scattered defense to score. The Greens' conversion missed.

A few minutes later Ken Maine powered his way through the line and raced 55 yards to touchdown territory. The extra point try missed and the score stood 19 to 12 at halftime.

In the third quarter Van Brocklin unleashed another long one that Robinson grabbed and carried over. The quarterback then applied the clincher by kicking the extra point, for a 26 to 12 count.

Early in the last quarter Abbey came through with a touchdown pass to Oas and then booted the extra point to make the score 26 to 19, and end the day's point-making. The last quarter saw the reserves take over and action bogged down.
