

Navy Requires College Grads

Lt. Charles L. Wall of the Seattle office of Naval Officer Procurement visited administration officials at the University yesterday explaining openings in the supply corps available to college graduates.

The candidates for commissions in the supply corps will be sent to a supply officers school at Bayone, New Jersey and upon completion of the course will be commissioned as ensigns.

Supply officers in the navy will be paid $180 a month plus dependents' allotments, travel pay, subsistence, and free medical and dental care.

Requirements for the supply corps candidates are: the candidate must be a college graduate, a native born citizen, between the ages of 21 and 25, in good physical condition, and must pass the mental, moral and professional standards set up by the supply corps.

Application blanks are available at the office of Karl W. Onthank, dean of personnel administration.

Further information may be obtained from the Office of Naval Officer Procurement, 513 Arctic building, 704 Third avenue, Seattle, 4, Washington.

Luncheon Tickets On Sale at Co-op

Eugene girls and those living out will be able to purchase their tickets for the annual YWCA sponsored junior-senior luncheon any time today at the Co-op.

The luncheon is scheduled for May 18 at 12:30 at the Eugene hotel. It is customary for junior women to invite the graduating seniors as their guests. Admission is 85 cents.

Money from the house sales of tickets is to be turned in to the Chi Omega house by Thursday evening, according to Dedo Misley, ticket chairman.

Grad Students Set Picnic, Ball Game

To celebrate "Grads Day", May 18, all graduate students and members of the faculty are invited to attend a picnic at Swimmers Delight.

Tickets may be purchased in the office of each department or from Newel Comish in 208 Oregon for 75 cents. They will cover costs of transportation, admission to the picnic area, and a lunch.

Features of the day will be a grad-faculty ball game and coronation of the Queen of the Stacks.

Baby Sitters Still Sit

The evening baby sitter service for the convenience of veterans and their wives is continuing under the leadership of Velma Snelstrom and Mary Margaret Jones, according to Miss Lois Greenwood, executive director of the YWCA.

It has also been requested that anyone interested in assisting with the program through the summer months contact the co-chairmen or apply at the Y.

YMCA to Elect Officers

Election of YMCA officers and a discussion of plans for next year will be held at the meeting of that organization on Thursday at 7 p.m., according to President Dave Mortimore.

Employees of Bethlehem Steel Corporation will receive $17,000,000 back pay under a new supplemental wage agreement.

Education Society Chooses Officers

Election of officers for Phi Delta Kappa, men's professional education society at the University, took place Thursday.

New officers elected were president, Ray Hendrickson, supervisor of health and physical education instructor in University high school; vice president, Norman Hawk, graduate student; secretary-tary, Victor Doherty; historian, Dan Hamlow, social science teacher in Eugene high school; news editor, William Dedman, English and social living instructor, Eugene high school; and faculty sponsor, Fred L. Stetson, professor of education in the university.

Seniors Offered Steamship Jobs

Jobs at sea or shore as freight and passenger solicitors or as pursers are available for seniors graduating in June, Karl W. Onthank, dean of personnel administration and director of the graduate placement service, revealed Tuesday.

In a letter to Dean Onthank, the personnel director of the American president steamship lines put out the call for college graduates with a foundation in economics, marine transportation and foreign trade.

Employees of the steamship line will have their choice of sea or shore duty.

Students desiring further information about the steamship job should contact Dean Onthank at the graduate placement office in Friendly hall.

Geology Group Elect

L. W. Staples, assistant professor of geology, was elected Monday as 1947-48 president of the Oregon chapter of Sigma Xi, national honor society for science research. Succeeding him as chapter secretary will be E. G. Ebbighausen, associate professor of physics. K. S. Ghent, assistant professor of mathematics, was named treasurer. New electors are C. W. Clancy, assistant professor of biology, and L. S. Cressman, head of the anthropology department.

Group Honors Two Phi Betas

Two outstanding members of Phi Beta, national student and dramatic honorary, were given recognition at a recent candlelight ceremony held at Gerlinger hall for the graduating seniors of the group.

Patricia Metcalf Chase was awarded the Phi Beta bracelet for the most outstanding professional work shown this year by a senior, and the Phi Beta scroll was presented to Ailene Wendt, junior, for the most outstanding service to the honorary. Miss Wendt succeeds Mrs. Chase as president this term.

Seniors who were present at the ceremony were Nancy Carlisle, Esther Griffiths, Helen Tims, Barbara Hood, Patricia Chase, Elizabeth Howes, Barbara Wiesy, Irene Burgess, Marjorie Reeves, and Louise Robson.

As part of the program Barbara Eagleson and Treva Rice each sang a solo, and a piano solo was given by Joan Abbitt.

Amphib Officers Elected Monday

Officers to "rule the deep" were elected Monday night when Betsy Moffit was chosen as the 1947-48 president of Amphibians, the women's swimming honorary. Assisting her will be Birdella Ball, vice-president; Sylvia Branden, secretary-treasurer; and Shirley Sault, publicity chairman.

The new officers will be installed May 19 at the annual Amphibian banquet to be held at the Eugene hotel.

Retiring officers of the club are Beverly Bennett, president; Mary Anne Hansen, vice-president; Betsy Moffit, secretary-treasurer; and Pat Mounts, publicity agent.

McKENZIE IN SPRINGFIELD

Joan Fontaine in "REBECCA" —also— "THE AFFAIRS OF GERALDINE"

Church Meeting Open to Students

Directors of the Unitarian church in Eugene have extended an invitation to University students interested in a liberal religion to attend a meeting Wednesday evening to survey the field for reorganizing the Eugene parish.

Rev. Delos O'Brien of San Francisco, Pacific coast director for the American Unitarian association, will preside. The church is located at the corner of Eleventh avenue and Ferry street.

Thursday Bible Group To Continue in St. John

The usual Thursday Bible studies, under the auspices of the UO Fellowship, will be continued in the tenth chapter of the Gospel according to St. John, at the men's lounge of Gerlinger hall from 8 to 9 a. m. and in the committee room of the University YMCA, from 11 to 12 noon.

"But as many as received Him, to them gave He power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on His name." (John 1:12) will be the theme.

In July, 1876, Deady hall became the first building on the University of Oregon campus.

McDONALD
DISTRIBUTOR WEST COAST THEATERS

"DUEL IN THE SUN"

JENNIFER JONES
GREGORY PECK
JOSEPH COTTEN

PETE THE COP Says:

Lastex Swim Trunks

styled by B.V.D.
Are Back Again

ALL SIZES PRICED RIGHT

Colors:
Maroon - Miaze
Sandtine - Royal

MORRISON - HENNING
Store for Men
McDonald Theater Bldg.

Support Your Emerald Advertisers

They support you and your Student Union drive.

OREGON Daily EMERALD