Luncheon Set May 17

"Lifetime Exposure, Graduation is not enough," is the title of the address Mrs. Edmundson Norton, regional secretary of the YWCA, will make to the annual junior-senior luncheon sponsored by the YWCA at the Eugene hotel, 12:30 Saturday, May 17.

Dedo Mисley, ticket chairman, has advised that junior women purchase their tickets and those for the seniors as soon as possible from their home representatives or at the YWCA. It is traditional for the seniors to be invited by juniors. Admission is 85 cents. All money from sales is to be turned into the Chi Omega house by Thursday night.

According to Anne Burgess, program chairman, the invocation will be given by Beryl Howard, worship chairman of the Y, and that short speeches will also be given by Bjorg Hansen, president, and Marjory Skordahl, past president of the Y. Background music is to be furnished by Mary Margaret Dundore at the piano.

Mrs. Norton is a past president of the University YWCA and has served as secretary at the University of California and the University of Oregon Y's.

Other members of the luncheon committee include Chairman Nila Dessinger, Geneva Davis, guests: Delores Ray, decorations, and Nancy Peterson, publicity.
