Y.W. Lunch Slated For Upper Classes

Carrying out a tradition of 30 years' standing, juniors will escort senior women to the annual YWCA Junior-Senior luncheon today.

The custom of 30 years was begun during the presidency of Prince L. Campbell. Mrs. Campbell inaugurated the event by inviting the entire senior class of girls to her home. It has been continued as a breakfast since then, held first in Ger-linger or at the YWCA bungalow and since moved to the downtown hotels.

In 1938, because of the war, the luncheon replaced the breakfast and has proved more satisfactory for most people.

Speaker this year will be Mrs. Edmunson Norton, regional secretary of the YWCA with her headquarters in Portland. Mrs. Norton was president of the association here when she was in school. Since then her work has taken her to the University of Illinois, and the University of California.

'Bears' Push Market Down

NEW YORK, May 16—(AP)—Wall street customers dumped stocks in a last-hour rush Friday, plunging the average price of shares to its lowest since March, 1945, slightly below the previous bear market bottom of last October.

Approximately $1,200,000,000 was sliced from the market value of listed issues. Individual stocks lost $1 to more than $7 a share in the flood of liquidation.

Lift the Hook... 'Here's Your Party!'

PORTLAND, May 16—(AP)—Oregonians began calling up their friends with impunity again Friday.

The end of the telephone strike gave many towns, dependent on manual exchanges, their first chance in six weeks to make all the calls they wanted instead of just emergency ones.

Workers, who voted overwhelmingly yesterday to end the strike, started returning at 6 a. m.
