A pharmacist's mate in the navy for two years attached to the marines, Sherman spent a good share of his tour of duty overseas in Korea. He plans to return to that country as a medical missionary when he graduates from the University of Oregon medical school in Portland, where he was accepted recently.

The University of Oregon was organized in 1872.

YWCA Schedules Union Discussion

"Are Unions Managed in a Democratic Fashion" will be discussed by a panel at 8 p. m. Wednesday, at the YWCA. The first in a series of panel discussions sponsored by the newly-formed Public Affairs committee of the Y, it will feature a Eugene labor leader, as well as student and faculty participation.

Although active on other campuses, the Oregon Y has never before had a Public Affairs committee. Janet Beigel is chairman of the group.

Other committee members are Laurel Anderson, Nancy Moran, Claire Wiley, Evangeline Howard, Maxine Jamieson, and Trudi Chernis.
