6-0 Duck Win Squares Series; Oregon Regains Third Position

By DON FAIR

Oregon's baseball team hit the winning trail, after three straight setbacks, blanking Oregon State, 6-0, at Howe field, behind John Day's five-hit hurling. The win evened the civil war series at a game apiece, and put the Ducks back into third place in the Northern Division.

The Aggies, after a 27-minute dispute on a play at third base in the sixth frame, made it known that they were playing the contest "under protest." The only question now arising is on what grounds do they have such a claim, and if so, to whom will the protest go?

The play, which drew the wrath of the Oregon State team and in particular their Coach Ralph Coleman, came with two out in the sixth, Oregon leading 2-0 and Ranny Smith on third, Al Cohen on first.

With Day at bat, Cohen streaked for second, and Beaver hurler Pete Krueger wheeled off the mound, looked at second and then rifled the ball to third, Smith sliding back. The base umpire first ruled the Oregon man out at third, with Oregon State leaving the field.

Hobby Claims Balk

Webfoot coach Howard Hobson then charged onto the field, claiming a balk on Krueger. Realizing that he hadn't seen the play, the base ump asked the plate judge to make the decision, and he ruled that Smith was safe at third, ordering Oregon State back onto the field.

For nearly half an hour Colman wrangled, stalked, and threatened with the arbiters, at one time refusing to send his team on the field. Finally the State coach gave in and allowed the game to go on, only under protest.

During this time, the Beavers were arguing with spectators in the stands, Coleman getting into a heated debate with one fan. A few spectators started on the field, but the situation was never out of control.

Ducks Score in Fourth

Oregon broke the ice in the fourth stanza, Bob Santee starting the surge with a half-swing single to right field. Tony Crish followed with a bouncer over second, Santee continuing to third. Roy Carlson then lofted a high twisting fly Baseman Don Bower wandering to short right, Beaver Second under the ball, and dropping it for an error, giving the Ducks a 1-0 edge.

Oregon came up with another singleton in the sixth as Carlson, with one gone poled a hefty triple into right field. Smith promptly batted him in with a bad-hop one-baser off Shortstop Bud Fortier's arm.

Krueger Wild

In the seventh, Oregon took advantage of Krueger's wildness to score three markers for a 5-0 lead. Walt Kirsch opened with a walk, and Dick Burns laid down a sacrifice which the Aggie hurler tossed to second too late to get Kirsch. Santee walked to fill the bases, and then Crish smashed a terrific grass-cutter cleanly through Bower at second for a hit.

Carlson's long hoist batted in scoring two runs. the tally of the inning. The Webfoots added the last one in the eighth on a pass to Kirsch, Burns' line-double over third base, and a long fly.

OSC Nabs Series Opener at Home

A three-run outburst in the eighth inning, aided by a two-base bobble, enabled Oregon State to capture the first game in their series with Oregon, 9-8, at Corvallis last Saturday.

Van Brocklin Paces 25-6 White Grid Victory Over Green Team

The Whites scored their second spring football victory over the Greens, 25 to 6, on Hayward field Saturday following the Oregon-Oregon State track meet.

Quarterback Norm Van Brocklin paced the White attack, throwing two touchdown passes. The first White tally came late in the first quarter when Van Brocklin pitched to End Dan Garza, who displayed a fine bit of open field running by shaking off three would-be tacklers to score standing up. The play gained 58 yards. Van Brocklin place kicked the extra point to give the Whites a 7-0 lead.

Cougars Club Washington Nine 7-2; Need Single Win to Clinch ND Flag

PULLMAN, Wash., May 19 (AP)—The Washington State Cougars moved to within one game of the Northern Division baseball pennant today by defeating Washington's Huskies, 7 to 2.

The two teams meet again tomorrow and another victory would clinch the flag for the Cougars.

The Cougars won today's game with a big five-run rally in the eighth inning that broke up a mount duel between Max Soriano and Wally Kramer. Three hits, two walks and a pair of Washington errors accounted for the winning tallies to give Kramer his sixth victory of the season without a loss.

Aries Clubs Homer

Right Fielder Don Aries clouted a home run for Washington State in the second inning, but the Huskies tied the score in the fourth. Andy Opacich was safe on an error, Sammy White walked and both advanced on Boody Gilbertson's sacrifice. Opacich scored on Jelly Anderson's long fly ball.

Successive singles by White and Gilbertson and Anderson's infield roller put the Huskies ahead in the sixth but WSC tied the count in the seventh and then sewed up the contest in the eighth.

Campbell Club, PhiPsi Win IM Softball Playoff Berths

The roster for the IM softball elimination finals became complete yesterday as Campbell club nosed out the Fijis 3 to 2 for league III honors and the Phi Psi squad pounded out a 10 to 2 victory over Kappa Sig for the loop II title.

In the Campbell-Fiji clash, the Campbell club crew put the Fijis down in one, two, three order in the top half of the first, then went out in front of Bill Cooley's homer in their half of the period.

In the third Campbell club capitalized on a walk, two errors, and a hit to tally another counter only to see the Fijis tie up the game in the next period as Ward and Lonigan crossed the plate.

Campbell club put the game, and the loop title, on ice in the fifth when Warren Archer pounded out a home run with none on. The Fijis threatened to score in the sixth as two men got on base via the error route but the rally fizzled out leaving the men on the base paths.

The Phi Psis jumped to an early lead over the Kappa Sigs with three runs in the first inning as Keith Allen came across on Hixson's single and Russ Rohwer homered with Allen on base. The Kappa Sigs answered with one tally in their half of the period on Reedy Berg's long circuit blow.

The Phi Psis added another marker in the second as Bob Reed drove in Keith Allen and chalked up a pair of counters in the second when Les Hixson came in on Jib Bocchi's double and Bocchi scored on an out-field fly.

Two more runs were added to the Phi Psi total in the fourth and a like number in the fifth as Kieth Allen, Phil Dascomb, Vic Selman, and Bob Reed all crossed the plate. Kappa Sigs managed to tally a second marker in the last of the fifth when Red Hendrickson hit a long ball into deep center field that just tipped off the fielder's glove to allow Hendrickson to score.

Kappa Sig Tennis Team Wins Quarter-Final Spot

The Kappa Sig tennis squad advanced to the quarter-final round yesterday by virtue of a 2 to 1 win over the Betas. Bill Cobb scored the only Beta point by putting down Dave Delano 6-3, 6-0.

JVs Close Season With 5-3 Record

Oregon's JV baseball team ended its 1947 season last Saturday with a one-sided 11-4 win over the Oregon College of Education nine here on Howe field.

Two wins from OCE gave the Ducklings five wins and three losses for the season.

Harry Walker was the winning pitcher for Coach Barney Koch's squad, allowing six scattered hits with his team mates committing three errors behind him.
