

Cougars Clinch ND Pennant

Bailey Boys Pound Huskies 13-7 As Torgeson Stars in Dual Role

PULLMAN, May 20—(AP)—Washington State college today won the Northern Division Pacific Coast conference baseball title defeating the University of Washington 13-7 with a seven-run spurt in the sixth inning sparked by two more runs.

Arnie Torgeson, Cougar relief hurler, started checking the Huskies with tight pitching in the fifth inning and gave Washington State its tenth victory in the sixth when he hit a three-run homer.

With only four losses, the Cougars could drop both their remaining two games with Idaho and still win the pennant. They will play the Southern Division champion for the right to represent the Coast conference in national play-offs.

The Huskies were ahead 7 to 5 when the Cougars launched their big sixth-inning attack. Chuck Brayton collected a two-run homer off Gott, and Washington sent Bobby Jorgensen to the mound with two Cougar runners on base. Torgeson hit the first ball Jorgensen hurled for the three-run circuit trip.

Torgeson entered the game in the fifth inning, relieving starter Ward Rockey, and pitched two-hit scoreless ball for the next four innings.

Washington State defeated Washington 7 to 2 yesterday in a pitching duel between the teams' pitching aces, Wally Kramer of the Cougars and Max Soriano of the Huskies.

Washington 200 230 000—7 9 6
Wash. State 022 107 01x—13 11 5

Gott, Jorgensen (6), and Andersen; Rockey, Torgeson (5), and Wilbur.

Dobbs Pulls Muscle

DALLAS, May 20 (AP)—Gil Dobbs, famed miler, suffered a pulled leg muscle while working out here.

It was not determined whether he will be able to fill an engagement to run in a track meet at Phoenix, Ariz., next Friday.

Webfoots Prime For Remaining Battles With Coleman's Bevos

Oregon's baseball team, definitely eliminated from the northern division chase, continued preparation for the two remaining games with Oregon State this weekend.

Howard Hobson's nine, by winning both of the contests, could end up in a tie for second with Washington in the final standings with 9 wins, 7 losses. Friday, the Beavers and Ducks square off at Corvallis, with the final day billed for Howe field Saturday afternoon at 3 p.m.

It will be the final games for Webfoot seniors Hal Haltzman, Tony Crish, Dick Burns, and Bob Santee. Saltzman will probably start on the mound Friday, with John Day doing the finale honors.

Graduation of Santee, Burns, and Crish will take the power punch of the Hobsonmen this year. Burns has been clubbing the ball at a steady .350 pace, while Crish and Santee have supplied the long blows and batted in the telling runs.

Last season, Oregon State whipped the Ducks three out of four but even this couldn't stop Oregon from winning their fourth consecutive title. This season the two teams are wrestling for third place in the division, with the Webfoots currently holding a one-game edge.

In dropping Monday's tilt to the Ducks, Aggie mentor, Ralph Coleman, saved his ace Chuck Suavain who is tagged to open at Corvallis Friday. The Beavers are a rejuvenated ball team with the addition of hustling Frankie Roelandt behind the plate.

BUCK BAILEY . . . Rotund, rabid Washington State college baseball coach whose Cougars yesterday tripped off with the Northern Division baseball championship.

ART McLARNEY . . . University of Washington baseball coach. McLarney's Huskies were unable to check the rampaging WSC sluggers and consequently the Seattle lads took two on the nose as the Cougars clinched the 1947 baseball title.

DU Tennis Team Drops Phi Delt

The DU netsmen advanced to the quarter-final round in the IM tennis eliminations yesterday by virtue of a 2-to-1 win over the Phi Delt.

The DU points were tallied by Herb Trainer who took the measure of Phi Delt Jim Thoburn in the singles 6-4, 6-1, and the doubles combination of John Weisel and Jim Nelson who put down Tom Davis and Don Nowell 6-3, 4-6, 6-4. The Phi Delt point was earned by the doubles team of Don McCollom and Bob Feasely who defeated Doc Payne and Larry Holden 6-8, 6-3, 6-3.

The libraries of United States institutions of higher learning contain more than 62,000,000 bound volumes.

Oregon Footballers to Demonstrate For Prep Coaching Clinic Thursday

By WALLY ADAMS

With five weeks of hard work under their belts, Oregon football hopefuls tapered off with a light scrimmage session yesterday in preparation for the Coach's clinic this weekend. The usual practice ended with a lengthy, but light scrimmage.

Aiken announced he was disappointed by the passing performance yesterday, after a brilliant showing last Saturday. However, he praised the work of the line, and singled out Halfback Keith DeCoursey for his outstanding scrimmage.

Part of the session was devoted to changing several assignments, in an experiment to get more power into the backfield running attack. Aiken did not state whether this would be a permanent part of his system, but it will likely remain in the test stage until next fall.

Efforts are being made to secure a game prior to the present University of Texas opener next fall in Portland. Aiken doesn't want the Ducks to go against the Longhorns without a game under his system behind them.

One more serious injury was added to the list when Guard Don Rueker went to the sidelines with a bad leg injury. The other men hurt during spring practice were Halfback Bill Behrens, and Fullback Deane Bond.

The Webfoots will run through a demonstration period for the benefit of the visiting high school coaches Thursday and close their spring practice Friday with a final full-length game on Hayward field.

COACH JIM AIKEN . . . whose University of Oregon football machine is putting the finishing touches on demonstration plans for the first annual high school coaches' clinic. Aiken is also trying to arrange a warm-up game for his athletes before the Ducks hit the University of Texas next fall.

Great Grid Season Foreseen By Coach

SPOKANE, May 20 — (AP) — Fritz Crisler, University of Michigan football coach, predicted today that fans all over the country will see the greatest football season of them all in 1947.

Visiting Michigan alumni and friends in the West, Crisler said veterans returning to college represent "a five-year accumulation of football talent" which will be organized this year as it could not be last season.

Predicting "There will not be an undefeated eleven in the Big Nine next November," Crisler said that "On any afternoon any one club in the conference will be able to beat any other club."

He will visit Seattle tomorrow and Portland, Thursday.

Track Mark Equalled

BEREA, O., May 20—(AP)—Harrison Dillard of Baldwin Wallace, America's hurdling champion, equalled his world record of 22.5 seconds in the 220-yard low hurdles today, but Ohio State's cindermen upset his mates, 86 to 41, in a dual meet.

Dillard hit the tape seven yards in front of his teammate, Norb Badar, to equal the mark which he set last year.

the CLUB
Barber Shop
814 Willamette

everybody loves the new eat treat!

PRONTO-PUPS
"Weiner Dan in the Bun"

EL PRONTO 17th & Willamette

CORSAGES—

- Sultry suggestive onions
- Perky radish rosettes
- Lemon and nut leis
- Asparagus clusters that bring out the green of his eyes
- Funnels, mops, brushes

UNIVERSITY GROCERY

790 E. 11th

Phone 1597