

First Class Wriggling Promised By Dance Festival Performers

To dance! That is the motto of the girls presenting the University's annual dance concert, this year. The concert, a dance festival featuring modern, folk and square dancing, will be held Friday evening at 8 o'clock in Gerlinger hall.

Modern dance numbers will be performed by members of Orchesis, the modern dance honorary. The folk and square dancing will be presented by both Orchesis members and members of the sophomore, junior, and senior professional physical education classes. The program, the major portion of which is modern dance, will last an hour and a half. Advisor of the group is Miss Rosamond Wentworth, assistant professor of physical education.

Main feature of the program is a 30-minute dance entitled "Trial by Jury." The dance has been the major project of Orchesis this year and is the group's first presentation of a dance possessing high dramatic qualities.

"He Who Resists Coercive Forces" is another dramatic number to be presented by Orchesis. Choreographer for this dance was Dorothy Currier Ramsey. Music for the two dances has been composed by Marge Folsom, pianist for the group.

Repeated dances from last year's concert will have new variations in movement and floor pattern. All of the modern dances have been composed by Orchesis under the direction of Miss Wentworth.

Junior Members

Tomorrow night's program begins in a gay mood with a medley of square dances. The rest of the program reads as follows: "Waltz Quadrille," a group of folk dances, "Tango," "Chorale," "One Who Resists Coercive Forces," "Celebration," and "Trial by Jury."

Football Clinic Opens Today

Football Coach Jim Aiken today opens a two-day football clinic as the University of Oregon plays host to nearly a hundred high school and junior high school football coaches.

Aiken and his assistants will hold morning and afternoon sessions ending with an intrasquad game on Hayward field Friday afternoon.

Ed Moshofsky and Dick Miller will handle offensive line play with Frank Zazula heading the offensive backfield sessions.

Miller will preside over defensive line play and Zazula over pass defense principles.

Thursday evening a buffet luncheon has been scheduled at the Eugene hotel for all visiting coaches, and Friday evening the Oregon and Duck clubs are acting as hosts at a banquet.

Spikes Churn For Division Final

It was hard work again for Oregon's track and field team yesterday as Colonel Bill Hayward and John Warren began working their men for the northern division meet May 31.

Training will continue the rest of this week and all next week before the squad leaves for Seattle.

Bill Beifuss was bothered with a sore leg in his OSC jumps even though he cleared 6 feet 6 inches and since then has been taking it easy.

Jake Leicht also injured his leg slightly Saturday and is giving it plenty of time to heal before pressing again.

Information gives YOU the answers
... who gives them to HER?

A lot of people take the Information Service of the Bell System for granted. Little do they realize what it takes to answer some two and a half million questions during a normal day.

Of course it takes operators : : : over 12,000 highly skilled "Information" operators.

But, in addition, it takes a staff of trained executive personnel.

They plan this service for cities and towns across the country so that "Information" can quickly find the latest listings of the many telephones within her area—from records that are brought up to date daily. And it is they who study operating methods and equipment in the never-ending search to make this service ever faster, ever better.

Is it any wonder that today, more than ever before, management is interested in young men with imagination and ambition : : : men to develop with the industry?
