

Duck Nine Travels To State

Webfoots Have Chance For Runnerup Finish

Oregon's baseball team, still with hopes for a second place in the division standings, travel to Corvallis today to meet Oregon State at 3 p. m.

Howard Hobson's Webfoots are now one full game behind Washington, who has completed its schedule, and by winning the final two against the Beavers could wind up in a tie for runner-up slot. The Aggies trail the Ducks by a full tilt, and have a chance to end third, dropping Oregon to fourth, if they should sweep the remaining contests.

Hal Saltzman is scheduled to open on the hill for the Lemon and Green, in his last appearance for the locals. Prince Hal hasn't had a too successful season, winning only two games and dropping four, and will probably be out to close his college career with win.

For the Staters, it will likely be Chuck Suavain pitching, and he too has found the going rough this season. His batterymate will be Frankie Roelandt, recently inserted back into the starting lineup following an injury:

Four men, Tony Crish, Bob Santee, Dick Burns, and Saltzman, will be playing the last series for Oregon, while second-sacker Don Bower is the only first-string senior for the Aggies.

Probable Duck starting lineup will be either Bill Burgher or Roy Carlson catching, depending on Oregon State's using left or right handed chucker. Dick Bartle, Walt Kirsch, Ranny Smith, and Al Cohen round out the field.

Outfielders will be Santee, Dick Burns, and Crish. The Beavers will use Harry Richards, Bower, Bud Fortier, and Ray Oberst on the infield, and John Mack, Dick Kohler, and Carl Gustafson in the outer garden.

The series to date stands at one game apiece with Oregon State winning the opener at Corvallis last Saturday 9-8, while the Ducks measured the Aggies 6-0 here Monday. The two teams complete their games tomorrow afternoon at 3 p. m. at Howe field.

Silence Requested

Spectators witnessing the ND tennis matches are requested to remain in keeping with the sportsmanship tradition of the game and maintain silence during the matches, applauding only the commendable plays by both sides. This token of courtesy will be appreciated by visiting players and coaches, and the Oregon entries as well.

Eugene, Jefferson, Hood River, Salem Win in Diamond Playoff

PORTLAND, May 22 (AP)—The defending champions, Jefferson high of Portland, and three up-state schools battled their way today into the semi-finals of the second annual state high school baseball tournament. Jefferson will meet Eugene tomorrow at 3:45 p.m. and Hood River will play Salem at 1:30 p. m.

Jefferson's 6-0 win came as Brem and Sandstrom set Klamath Falls down with three hits while their mates were getting 11 blows off two Southern Oregon hurlers.

The Eugene Axemen pounded out a winning run in the 12th inning to down Sandy, 2-1, in a pitchers' marathon. Clyde Ellison, third baseman, squeezed home on an in-

Tilt Ends 30-Day Practice As Men Perform for Clinic

Oregon's gridders close out their 30-day spring practice session this afternoon with an intrasquad game on Hayward field at 2 p.m., put on for the benefit of the high school coaches visiting the campus for the first annual football clinic. Today's fray will finish up the time allotted for spring workouts to Pacific coast conference schools.

The game will send the Whites, the present first and fourth elevens, against the Greens, the second and third strings. The Whites have captured two previous tilts, 26 to 19 and 25 to 6.

A full morning is scheduled for the prep school mentors, as the coaching staff demonstrates Oregon's defensive tactics. Activities start at 9 a.m. with defensive end play under supervision of Line Coach Dick Miller. At 10:00 a.m. Backfield Coach Frank Zazula will show forward pass defense, and then head man Jim Aiken will hold an open discussion and squad demonstration on general defense at 11.

Approximately 60 coaches attended the opening of the coaching clinic yesterday as the grid staff presented offensive action. All the mentors on the campus for the demonstrations were the guests of the Oregon athletic department last night after a buffet supper at the Eugene hotel.

Squads and their numbers for this afternoon's game are as follows: Whites—Ends: Dan Garza, 88; Lou Robinson, 81; Art Milne, 25; Larry Stoeven, 55; Tackles: Don Stanton, 93; Lynn Bassonette, 53; Steve Dotur, 33; Dean Sheldon, 78; Guards: Steve Mezzera, 80; Ted Meland, 46; Ed Chrobat, 47; Jack Schneiderman, 58; Centers: Brad Ecklund, 43; Clark Stokes, 40. Backs: Bob Sanders, 70; Bud Boqua, 56; Jerry Butler, 21; Bob Koch, 37; Norm Van Brocklin, 68; George Bill, 30; Aubrey Van Loo, 54; Arnett Johnson, 32.

Softball Finals Today

BILL ABBEY . . . quarterback for the Greens.

Delts Boast Strong Pitching Against Theta Chi Sluggers

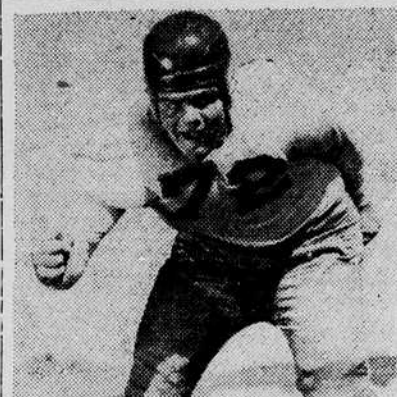

The 1947 IM softball crown will be at stake this afternoon, when the Theta Chi and Delt nines square off in the championship contest, at 4 p. m. on the old diamond.

The Delts will rely heavily on the silver-plated twirling of Ed Sanford. He allowed only three runs to cross the plate in the two crucial playoff tilts with Campbell club and the Alpha Taus. Sanford has also seen considerable action in the city softball league this season, with two wins and no losses to his credit.

Catcher Zeb Czaikowski and first-sacker Bob Kehrl supply the one-two punch at the plate. Both batsmen are power hitters, as evidenced by the homers they pounded out in the ATO fray to pace their team to an important win.

The Theta Chi boys will field a well-balanced team this afternoon combining plenty of hitting power and a pair of top-rate hurlers, Paul Sowers and Tommy Wright.

Records reveal that the hilltop gang have never been limited to less than eight runs in a single round-robin encounter. This impressive feat is largely due to such able swatters as Bill Harber, Tom Collie, Keith Baird, Bill Hutchinson, Roy Baughman, and Ed Vannett.

HARRY EDWARDS . . . Hefty second-string tackle.

TED MELAND . . . Hard-charging guard destined for plenty of action in today's intra-squad scrimmage, closing spring practice.

Logger Team 'Best in West'

SPOKANE, May 22 — (AP) — Coach Jerry Stannard, whose Whitworth College Pirates were trounced twice by North Idaho College of Education yesterday, concluded today that the Loggers have "the best college baseball team in the Northwest."

He wasn't limiting the comparison to teams in his own WINCO league, either, recalling the beating the Loggers handed the Washington State College Cougars, champions of the northern division, Pacific Coast conference.

With sensational Del Owens, heavy hitting pitching star, leading the attack, the Loggers won 21 and lost four college games this season.

Jobs Open in USES

The campus branch of the State Employment Service announced Tuesday that there are job openings with the United States Forestry Service for blister-rust control work and fire suppression and trail crew work.

Order 'O' Picnic

The annual Order of "O" picnic will be held Sunday afternoon at Swimmer's Delight, according to Ed Dick, president. All members are requested to come any time after 12 o'clock noon.
