

Wesley Group Initiates Drive

Wesley Foundation has started its drive for the raising of $100 for the Methodist Student Service fund. The drive is being conducted from May 21 to June 1.

One of the features of the drive will be a "Bond Rally" to be held at Wesley Foundation house, 1347 Onyx street, on May 28. Wesley "stars" will present the cause of the Student Service fund and sell one-dollar New World bonds. The goal set for the Foundation is one dollar per person.

The $100 will be divided as follows: $25 for some project of national importance to the Methodist Student movement; $25 will be sent back to Oregon for use in the Methodist Student movement here; and $50 will be sent to the treasurer of the Board of Missions and Church Extension. Of this amount part will be spent for the work of the World's Student Christian Federation and the balance is designated to a Fellow College or other student missionary project.

Eleanor Belgium is chairman for the promotion of the drive.

Student Playwright Offered $100 Prize

One hundred dollars prize money is being offered for the winning manuscript in a three-act play contest sponsored by the Nebraska Masquers, dramatic honorary on the University of Nebraska campus, the English department has announced.

Deadline is August 1, 1947.

There are no restrictions as to setting or theme, and several authors may collaborate on a script, but the play must not have been produced before.

The Nebraska Masquers will produce the prize-winning play for eight performances during the 1947-48 season.

Mrs. Alice H. Ernst, 106 Villard, who teaches play writing on the campus, will answer any questions and furnish further details as to the preparation of manuscripts.

Any regularly-enrolled University student is eligible.

'Shells' Topic of Talk

Miss Ruth Coats of Tillamook will speak on the topic "Shells" at the meeting of the Natural History society at 8 p. m. Friday in 101 Condon.

Williamson said, "It is our duty as the present students to initiate the driving force and to sustain its momentum until its doors finally open to the Oregon students."

He advocated a further development of the Oregon Federation to attract more outstanding young men and women to the University.

"For too long we have surrendered excellent students and athletes to out-of-state schools. I am certain that many of these would be here now if a more concerted effort were expended," he declared.

Williamson added that this would be the only method of raising the University from the ranks of the mediocre.

His plan for the organization of drives was to establish one grand drive patterned on the basis of the community chest, which would include all but the March of Dimes and the Red Cross. Under this system individual funds would receive their proportion as determined by a board established by the executive council.

In reference to the Millrace, which he termed the predominate element of Oregon, Williamson said, "If I can, in any way, exert influence along the lines of restoring it to its rightful place, I shall do so."

He announced his policy on appointments would be to award them according to merit.

"The caliber of students appointed reflect on the ASUO president. To grant them on anything but merit would greatly hinder him and would be detrimental to the best interests of the student body," he said.

In nominating Williamson, Wilbur Craig pointed out that he was well-known throughout the Northwest and Oregon as an outstanding player in Northern Division basketball.

Other qualifications cited by Craig included service as a lieutenant in the marine corps, secretary of the sophomore class, and a new member of Friars, senior men's honorary.

Bobbie Fullmer, who was nominated for the number two position by Hazel Trollinger, was prevented by illness from giving her acceptance speech.

Activities of Miss Fullmer that were cited by Miss Trollinger included members of Kwama, Gamma Alpha Chi, the Co-op board, Mortar Board, and president of the junior women's honorary, Phi Theta Upsilon. She also pointed out that Miss Fullmer had served as secretary of the junior class.

"She has handled many jobs and has done well in all of these," Miss Trollinger said.

Election day is Tuesday. Go to the polls—Vote.
