

Law Honorary Reactivated

Reactivation of the University of Oregon chapter of Phi Alpha Delta, law fraternity, was completed here Saturday with formal initiation of 24 new members.

Officers of the reactivated chapter are: Raymond C. Coulter, justice; Robert B. Carmichael, vice-justice; and Dale E. Helikson, clerk. Dr. Charles G. Howard, professor of law, is faculty adviser. Assisting in the ceremony were Stuart G. Oles, associate tribune of the fraternity, and James A. Holloman, justice of Dunbar chapter, both from the University of Washington.

New members initiated were: Richard R. Carney, Robert R. Carney, Fritz H. Giesecke, John W. Hill, and James W. Nelson, Manville M. Heisel, Jack L. Hoffman, Harold V. Johnson Jr., Ralph W. Johnson, Preston L. Phipps, Walter K. Rodman, Elmer B. Sahlstrom, and Dudley C. Walton, Edwin E. Allen, Nel-

Newman Club to Cavort Sunday at Swimmers

The Newman club invites all Catholic students and their guests to come to the annual Newman club picnic which will be held Sunday at Swimmers Delight, Cy Laurie, club president, has announced.

The group will meet in front of the Side at 11:30 Sunday morning. Transportation will be provided.

There will be swimming and baseball. All planning to attend are asked to pack their own lunch.

Jobs Available To UO Grads

Several prospects for jobs on a long-time basis and chance for promotion have been received and are in the offing for graduates this spring. Karl W. Onthank, dean of personnel administration announced yesterday.

Sales representatives for Eugene and elsewhere in Oregon are needed by Proctor and Gamble, Zellerbach Paper Co., Morton Salt Co., Sears, and the Credential Life Insurance this summer and more will be needed later on.

Call for Counselors

A call for counselors for summer camps is being made by Girl Scout camps. Also a private summer camp for boys is asking for a man with some counseling experience to be head counselor. This position will pay $300 for the season, plus living expenses. Nurses are also needed for these camps.

All graduates who are interested and do not have jobs lined up after graduation are urged to take advantage of these offers. Appointments for interviews and information on these propositions may be obtained at the office of Personnel Administration in room 6, Friendly.

Browsing

(Continued from page one) there will be only two polling places instead of three. The one that got the axe was the library; politicians figure that a lot of the men in the Vets Dorms won't bother to walk to YM or the Igloo. . . .

Just a reminder that the Spudnut Shop on 11th still has enough room for you and yours to come in and paw over one of their delish Spudnut Top Hats. A bunch of the boys took a huge sack full of them along on a picnic over the weekend and darned if they aren't good with beer too!

Three times in the past four days, people in the know have been heard discussing the possibility that the ballot boxes might be stuffed; it's been done before. . . . Five cute Chi O's brightened the Phi Psis lunch Thursday noon by putting a new twist into an old song; the boys said to say thanks! . . . Delt Norm Morrison got 40 kisses from as many girls for his birthday (yum!) . . . Tom Burbee's Snack Bar is still packing 'em in at the Vets Dorms. With pre-war prices on most everything, it's small wonder that the French hall rendezvous is becoming a mecca for the starved and thirsty. (paid advt.)
