

Hazzard Elected Religious Chairman

Tom Hazzard, junior in liberal arts, was elected student chairman of the University Religious council last week at its annual dinner at the Faculty club.

Other officers are Jim Molener, adult secretary; Beryl Howard, student secretary; and Kelly Hamilton, treasurer.

The ten members at large selected by U.R.C. for next year are Joan Williams, Harry Glickman, Howard Lemons, Bev Pitman, Joe Conroy, Clell Conrad, Marty Pond, Barbara Borrevick, Carl Maxey, and Ann Whitaker.

Commencement

(Continued from page one) fill in a questionnaire in order to receive the one year's free membership in the Oregon Alumni association and a subscription to Old Oregon, both provided to all graduating seniors.

Tickets for the alumni luncheon in John Straub hall on Saturday, June 14, will also be available to all seniors and their guests, Anderson said.

All of the above material will be available at the alumni office after June 1. The office will be open each day except Saturday from 8 a.m. to 12 noon, and from 1 p.m. to 5 p.m., until June 13.

Herbert Butt to Speak To University Fellowship

Herbert Butt, associate general secretary of the International IntersVarsity Christian fellowship, will conduct a series of Bible lectures at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday and Thursday in room 304 library, under the sponsorship of the local fellowship chapter.

A graduate of the University of Washington, Butt also attended the Dallas, Texas, theological seminary. Since completing his ministerial training, he has devoted his full time to evangelism.

At the present time, Butt is the staff representative for universities and colleges having intersvarsity chapters in Washington, Oregon, and northern California.

Sophomore Commission Invites Frosh Women

All freshmen women who are interested in the YWCA sophomore commission are invited to attend a picnic scheduled for June 4, from 5 to 7 p. m. Plans for next year's program will be discussed.

Those who wish to attend are asked to sign up with the representative in their individual living organizations or at the "Y" before

May 28. A fee of 25 cents for the picnic lunch should be paid to the representative at that time. Transportation will be provided.

There will be no regular sophomore commission meeting before the picnic.

Books Due Final Week

It is requested that all students turn in their library books by the last day of final exams. All books should be turned in from the living organizations, also.
