

Perfect Future, 'Future Perfect' Won by Marilyn Sage in N.Y.C.

By BILL HOWLETT

Marilyn Sage, senior in journalism last year, is living the sort of success story most coeds merely dream about. She is currently in New York working for John Robert Powers famous model agency. Anyone who is more than a freshman will remember Marilyn Sage as the blonde vision who was as well known on the campus as the Pioneer Mother, and a whole lot nicer to know. She was president of the University of Oregon chapter of Theta Sigma Phi, national women's journalism honorary.

According to her brother, Bill Sage, freshman in pre-med, the Coquille lass was working in New York last summer for a publishing house, wondered if her journalistic talents might not be appreciated by the Powers agency, and applied for a job doing publicity work. She was turned down for lack of experience. As she was leaving the building, Mr. J. R. Powers, himself, saw her and promptly saw to it that she got the job for which she had been turned down.

She is now assistant manager of the Powers charm school called, "Future Perfect." Offered a job modeling, she decided there was a more perfect future in what she was doing and declined with thanks.

Her brother reports that Marilyn is crazy about New York, despite initial difficulties finding an apartment, and wouldn't leave now for anything short of an earthquake.

For those who feel that doing journalistic work in a model agency lacks glamour, Miss Sage might have a whimsical smile. She knows what she is doing.

Student Magician Seeks Campus Job

Can you use a magician to spirit you into your house after closing hours? Or possibly a ventriloquist to sit in class with your worst enemy and cause a little confusion?

A student has applied for part-time work as a magician and ventriloquist, Mrs. Lucille Parsons, manager of the University branch of the Oregon State Employment Service, said Tuesday. He is seeking engagements at either private parties or lodges.

The number of students applying for positions, according to Mrs. Parsons, outnumber the available jobs. However there are positions open in yard work, such as mowing lawns and shoveling in sawdust she added, and part-time stenographers are needed.

of no particular religion, belonging to no clubs, and so on. The list is long and ridiculous.

Freedom of the screen is about to be jeopardized by censorship. Censorship's blue pencils are operating now, this minute.

No argument can be made against their cutting rank obscenity out of motion pictures. Originally, that was all they were supposed to do. But today, far from their first limits, the censors determine the total content of what we see on a supposedly free screen.

Incidentally, if there are any kiddies reading this who want to go out and look at a little cleavage let them pick up almost any one of the host of comic books that infests the average drug store. You don't even have to go out of the house if you don't want to: just subscribe to a paper that publishes Steve Canyon, Milton Caniff's "comic" strip. The current female in the strip is practically all cleavage.

But that's in the funnies, not the movies. . . .

Lie Advocates Aid To Relieve Europe

UNITED NATIONS HALL, FLUSHING, N. Y., Sept. 30—(UP)—United Nations Secretary-General Trygve Lie warned tonight that unless fresh emergency aid is quickly forthcoming, war-devastated Europe will run short more than $1,787,000,000 of meeting its 1947 international trade obligations.

In a detailed report on the economic plight of Europe, Lie's financial experts stated that some nations might have no recourse but to cut down already marginal standards of living by curtailing imports. Among these named specifically were France, Italy, Austria, Poland, Yugoslavia, and Czechoslovakia.

IT'S CAMELS WITH ME!

The platter that's causing plenty of chatter in juke circles is "Skitch" Henderson's latest instrumental—"Dancing With a Deb." Boy—what a record!

It's obvious "Skitch" has had plenty of experience in tickling those ivories, and he follows that experience rule in smoking too. "I smoked many different brands and compared," says "Skitch." "My choice from experience is Camel."
