

Yates Releases Staff Positions

Upper-staff appointments for the 1948 Oregana were announced by Editor Ross Yates, yesterday.

Merle Pugh was named assistant managing editor, Howard Ramey as special features editor, Ruth Reagan to the post of executive secretary, Helen Sherman as promotion director, and Larry Davidson, assistant editor.

Miller's Assistants

Assisting Warren Miller, associate editor in charge of houses, are: Roger Tetlow, executive editor in charge of men's houses, and Nancy Peterson, executive editor in charge of women's houses. Jim Wallace will be assistant executive editor and Dorothy Orr will serve as layout editor for houses.

Assisting Laura Olson, associate editor in charge of activities, are: Laverne Gunderson, ISA; Joanne Frydenlund, publications; Janice Kent, drama; Janet Beigal, clubs; Billjean Riethmiller, service honoraries; Marie Lombard, fashions; Kit Wilhelm, associated women students; and June Fitzgibbons, concert and lecture series. Diana Dye was named as women's sports editor.

Special writers appointed by Yates are Maryann Theilen, Beth Basler, and Nancy Starkweather. Phyllis Kohlmeier and Virginia Fletcher were named as special assistants. Yates emphasized that artists and writers are especially needed for the 1948 Oregana.

Announcement of staff appointments for the schools section and houses sections will be made later.

Eager Cadets

member of the 295th AAA searchlight battalion stationed in the Hawaiian islands.

Two juniors in business administration, ex-AAF pilot cadet Jack R. Donald and Has H. Haight, who served on the cruiser New Orleans in the western Pacific during the war, both want to fly on a reserve status.

Training Valuable

Another junior in business administration, Jimmy W. George, is of the opinion that the advanced military education he is receiving is valuable in rounding out his university education and in supplementing his educational allowance through the compensation paid advanced ROTC members.

George holds the distinction of being in the third plane that landed 11th airborne division paratroops at Atsugi, Japan, at the beginning of the American occupation of Japan.

Public Law 16 Vets Get Raise

Any changes in the marital status of veteran students at the University, or in the number of their dependents if they are under public law 16, should be reported immediately to the veterans administration office in Emerald hall.

Public law 338, which became effective September 1 this year, provides for a raise in the minimum pension and subsistence allowance paid under public law 16 to veterans suffering 30 per cent or more disability. Those with less than 30 per cent disability are not affected.

The new law also provides for an increased allotment for married veterans with children, plus increases for each additional child, provided the student is attending school under public law 16, and is at least 30 per cent disabled.

Veterans attending the University under public law 346 are not affected by the new law.
