

Apple Week Without Slogan

"Keep Your Eyes Peeled!" This was the slogan that advertised the 1946 Gamma Alpha Chi apple sale. Now the Gamma Alpha Chis, members of the women's national advertising honorary, are looking for a new slogan and committee chairmen to put over the 1947 apple sale.

An annual affair, the apple sale will be conducted the latter part of the month, probably during national apple week, Mary Ann Hansen, president, announced Thursday. The sale will be on a campus-wide basis and will feature individual house sales as well as sales from different campus spots.

Petitions for general chairman and committee chairmanships should be turned in to Mary Anne Hansen at the Alpha Phi house by Tuesday, October 14. Position of general chairman will be given to a sophomore or junior, but anyone may petition for committee work, Miss Hansen said.

Slogans should also be turned in to Miss Hansen at the Alpha Phi house as soon as possible.

Sports Briefs

Michigan State's football team, slightly groggy after a rough trip, flew in from the East late today by chartered airliner. The Spartans play Washington State at Pullman Saturday.

Rain canceled plans for a workout under the arcs at Gonzaga stadium tonight but the team ran through calisthenics in the Gonzaga gymnasium. A practice session was scheduled at Rogers field in Pullman tomorrow.

Back in their accustomed role as underdogs, Coach Dixie Howell's University of Idaho Vandals entrained tonight for Corvallis, where they come up against Oregon State Saturday. The Beavers walloped the Vandals 33-0 last year but the rejuvenated Vandals were sure it wouldn't be that bad this year.

15 kicks. All these statistics are based on three games played.

Also among the tops in the country is Lightning Jake Leicht, who ranks ninth among the colleges' pass receivers. Leicht has been on the catching end of nine of Van Brocklin's tosses, and has racked up 124 yards from them. Also brought out in the figures was that of Byron Gillory, slippery Texas halfback who wrecked Oregon's chances by snagging three touchdown passes, is rated only 13th in the country, and has scored only four times.

The wearing of apparel creates for America

AN EVERYDAY ART

FUNCTIONALLY SERVICEABLE, American clothes are a means of personal expression. In this country, the standards of style as well as utility are set by the needs and preferences of the public.

WOMEN'S CLOTHES IN AMERICA are an eloquent expression of true democracy; grace and beauty of apparel are accorded a circulation as broad as the nation, reaching into every community everywhere and available, not merely to the hundreds or the thousands, but to the millions.

THIS IS VITALLY IMPORTANT to the nation's morale, because clothes are one of the few mediums for relaxed self-fulfillment in a nation of rapidly-moving commercial competition.
