WORLD HEADLINES

By United Press

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., Oct. 16. Former secretary of state James F. Byrnes' suggestion that the Red army be driven out of Germany by force—if necessary—caused a sensation in United Nations circles today. Most delegates reserved public comment but privately a number expressed grave concern at the new evidence of deterioration in relations between the United States and Russia. Some also expressed surprise at the intimacy of Byrnes' revelations concerning Big Three diplomatic relations.

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 16. The American freedom train will visit Portland next March 20 and 21, it was learned here today. The train, carrying priceless historical documents will also stop at Eugene on March 22, and Salem on March 23.

CHICAGO, Oct. 16. Wheat futures continued a record-smashing climb above $3 a bushel on the Board of Trade today as President Truman announced a federal investigation of soaring prices. The only higher wheat future price is the all-time record of $3.25 a bushel set during may 1917.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16 Eighteen film notables told their colleagues in the industry tonight that the House Unamerican Activities committee's inquiry into Hollywood communism is designed to put the movies under congressional control. They said in an open letter that the issue of the investigation is "not the historically phony one of subversion of the screen by communists—but whether the screen will remain free."

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16. The AFL wound up its 66th annual convention today after re-electing President William Green for his 24th term despite a bitter boycott by mine-worker's president John L. Lewis that climaxed one of the worst inter-organization splits in 11 years.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16. Closing the borders to seasonal farm workers imported from Mexico was urged tonight by the American Federation of Labor to counteract agricultural employment. The 66th annual convention called for defeat of a proposal to enact federal legislation permitting "further importation of foreign nationals for exploitation in American agriculture.

LONDON, Oct. 16. Scotland Yard today imposed unprecedented security provision for the route of the royal wedding procession November 20 when Princess Elizabeth and Lt. Philip Mountbatten make their first marital appearance before the British public. Police notified all landlords that the name of every ticketholder admitted to buildings overlooking the route must be filed with Scotland Yard. Every ticketholder is subject to search and must have an identity card and-or passport in his possession.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16. The army corps of engineers said today that 8,000 men have been engaged in construction of new Alaskan airfields and other facilities under a $70,000,000 initial program to be completed in 1948. The over-all Alaskan construction program may require until 1960 to complete, the engineers said.

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y., Oct. 16. Great Britain today threw its support behind a proposed year-round meeting of a United Nations "Little Assembly," but the Soviet bloc stepped up its criticism with personal attacks on two "Little Assembly" sponsors, John Foster Dulles and Sen. Arthur H. Vandenburg, R., Mich. The Soviets accused Vandenburg of switching his stand on the veto question, and said Dulles was insincere.

Art League Names Edward Erickson

Edward L. (Stubby) Erickson, senior in landscape architecture, was elected president of the Architecture and Allied Arts league in a meeting held Wednesday at 4 p.m.

Other new officers include Ann Hite, junior in interior decoration, vice-president; C. F. Wetherbee, junior in architecture, secretary-treasurer; and Ken Wollenweber, junior in architecture, public relations agent.

The league discussed plans for their forthcoming freshman party, scheduled for this term, the Beaux-Arts ball, slated for winter term, and the league's annual picnic, planned for spring term.

Oregon's triple "A" chapter, advised by Sidney Little, dean of the art school, is now the second largest in the country.

According to Erickson, this year's Beaux-Arts ball will be the finest ever presented on the campus, and a limited number of tickets will be placed on public sale next term.

Social Science Club Sees Growth Film

Dr. Lester Beck, associate professor of psychology, will show and discuss the educational film "Human Growth" at the first meeting of the Social Science club Monday at 6:15 p.m. at the Faculty club.

Members are asked to make dinner reservations with the secretary, R. C. Swank, University librarian.
