

Series to Open With First-Hand Talk on France

First speaker in the University lecture series to begin October 23 will be Dr. Gordon Wright, associate professor of history, Rudolph H. Ernst, chairman of the series announced last week. Dr. Wright will talk on the "Anatomy of the Fourth French Republic" and will be the first of 12 speakers to lecture in the 1947-48 series.

During the war Dr. Wright worked for the state department on French affairs. His division surveyed policy covering every region of the world.

Foreign Service

Early in 1945 he transferred to France. His trip with foreign service personnel to Paris while the war was still in progress was made via Portugal and Spain.

Dr. Wright has received his information on the French republic first hand. In Paris he worked on the diplomatic side of foreign service in the embassy, his job being known as "professional political reporting."

Besides Dr. Wright, other local speakers in the series will be Percy John Powers who will talk on the Spanish author Cervantes. This lecture will be given in commemoration of the 400 birthday of the author of "Don Quixote."

Local Men Lecture

Herbert H. Hoeltje, senior professor of American literature, Edmund A. Cykler, associate professor of musicology, and M. D. Ross, assistant professor of architecture, will round out the program of local men to lecture this season.

Dr. Hoeltje will talk on either Emerson or Hawthorne, Dr. Ernst said while Cyklers has chosen "Contribution of Musicology to Humanistic Studies" as his lecture topic. Ross will discuss Peruvian architecture in his series speech.

Wesley House To Hear Speech

Continuing with the current series on "Christian Behavior," Wesley house will hear Rev. L. O. Griffith, pastor of First Methodist church, at the regular Sunday evening forum this week. He will speak on "Christian Behavior and the Church."

This meeting will be the third in the series of six. Future topics will include: "Christian Attitudes on Liquor," led by Rev. Ellsworth Tilton; "Christian Behavior in Business and Labor," with Dean Victor P. Morris in charge; and finally "Christian Attitudes on Compulsory Military Training" with Dr. Charles Howard of the law school acting as moderator for the forum.
