Music Professor to Play Piano Concert Tonight

PROFESSOR GEORGE HOPKINS

George Hopkins, professor of piano, will present a concert of French-American music at 8:15 tonight in the music school auditorium.

Tonight's program, which is sponsored jointly by Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia and the school of music, is open to the public. There will be no admission charge.

Hopkins returned Tuesday from a concert engagement in Lakeview, where he played six encores before a packed high school auditorium. He regarded it as significant that so remote a community should have such a fine turnout for a concert. He gave a concert recently in Medford.

This will be the only concert that Hopkins will present in Eugene this year. He has scheduled an engagement in Salem in the spring.

Dr. Wright To Lecture On France

Address Tonight At Critical Period In French History

Dr. Gordon Wright, associate professor of history and an authority on France, will open the 1947-48 University lecture series tonight in 207 Chapman hall with an address on "Anatomy of the Fourth French Republic." The lecture will begin at 8.

Dr. Wright's views should be of particular interest because of the resignation yesterday of the French coalition cabinet. The University man had an opportunity to view the inner workings of French politics recently while assigned to the political section of the United States embassy in Paris.

Discussing his address tonight Dr. Wright said Tuesday that as the eyes of the world focus today on the action of the communist parties France today assumes an important strategic position in world politics. The French political and economic situation today may have a bearing not only on French internal conditions, but on world affairs, he said.

French politics, according to Dr. Wright, is a product of tradition. The divisions are deep and people who have made studies of elections in France have found that little change has taken place over the years.

Webfooters Call Meet

The Webfooters will meet at 7:30 tonight in 105 Journalism building. Every living organization should have a representative at the meeting, according to Webfooter head Norm Morrison.

Committee Appeals For Student Help

An appeal was issued yesterday for students to serve on the decoration committee for the Homecoming dance November 22.

Chuck and Bob Corgan, co-chairmen of the committee, announced that petitions can be secured from the dean of men or dean of women's offices in Emerald hall. All completed petitions should be turned in at the Phi Gamma Delta fraternity house by 5 p.m. Monday.

The co-chairmen revealed that this year's dance will be decorated in a sentimental motif and will carry out the Homecoming theme, "Return! Recall! Recapitulate!—Oregon Spirit." Persons with previous decorating experience are particularly needed to serve on the committee.

Beardless Boys To Hit the Tub For Shave 'Sin'

Sophomores without beards will hit the tub Friday, according to Ed Anderson, president of Skull and Dagger. Names of the men who have violated the tradition of "no-shave" during the stated time will appear in the Emerald tomorrow. Each one listed is requested to report to the Side by 12:30 p.m.

Members of the sophomore honorary will be on the lookout for violators. Names of men who have shaved may be turned in to Anderson or any members of Skull and Dagger.

The dunking Friday begins the penalty program. During halftime at the game Saturday, names will be read off and all men whose names are called will be dunked in the middle of the field. Those failing to show up for their tubbing Friday will be dealt with at the game.

Upperclassmen of each living organization have been asked to see that the sophomores who have violated the rule show up for their appointments on time.

House Poll Indicates Boost Okey

All Groups Submit Reports of Opinions On Tuition Question

Sixty-eight per cent of the 3851 students expressing their opinions approved the $5 tuition increase to raise funds for a student union building on the Oregon campus, Dick Williams, educational activities manager announced yesterday.

Of the men, 1378 or 71 per cent approved the tuition raise. Sixty-four per cent, or 1241 women voted "yes" on the issue.

The results were quite evenly distributed between affiliated and non-affiliated students, Williams said.

Houses Contacted

Every living organization on the campus was contacted through interfraternity council, interform council, interco-op council, Panhellenic, Independent Students association, Yoeman, Ordes and personal contacts. Ordes, Yeoman, and every house except two tabulated and submitted their vote of approval or disapproval.

At the students' request, the proposal for a $5 increase in tuition for ten terms will be presented to the state board of higher education at its meeting Monday, according to Williams.

Money to Furnish

The money from the tuition increase will be used to equip and furnish the Erb Memorial building, providing it is approved further. If events prove favorable the construction of the building should begin in mid-1948 and be completed in late 1949.

The 93,000 square foot building will include a ballroom, an art lounge, student office space, meeting rooms, banquet rooms, an administrative office, a general lounge, a cafeteria, a soda bar, a bowling alley, billiard and pool tables, music listening rooms, Oregon office, and a barber shop.

New Rally Idea To Spark Team

See Pairings page 8

As an experiment to get a larger turnout at pre-game fight rallies, the Webfooters yesterday announced a new type of serpentine rally to be tested Friday night at 7:15, for the Oregon-USF football clash Saturday.

A drawing has been held to pair living organizations. The men are to meet the women at their respective houses and assemble between 12th and 13th on Alder at 7:15.

The University band and rally squad will wait there until all organizations have arrived and then lead the parade, serpentine style, to downtown Eugene for a 20-minute rally, which will include fight songs and yells. The rally will have a police escort.

The serpentine will proceed down Alder to Eleventh, down Eleventh to Oak, down Oak to Eighth, down Eighth to Willamette and up Willamette to Tenth.

As in the past, men are asked to don their rooter's lids and women are to carry pom poms. Every living organization is requested to paint signs for the rally, according to Yell King Johnny Backlund.

WORLD HEADLINES

PARIS, Thursday, Oct. 23. Premier Paul Ramadier early today formed a new streamlined cabinet to replace the nine-month-old coalition government which resigned yesterday. The new cabinet had 13 members—seven socialists, three popular republicans, two left republicans and one independent. Most of them served in the previous cabinet, but several held different posts.

The previous cabinet, composed of 28 ministers, quit under simultaneous pressure from communist-led labor unions on the left and Gen. Charles De Gaulle's triumphant anti-communist movement on the right. The new cabinet convened for the first time at 12:15 a.m., with President Vincent Auriol presiding.

CLEVELAND, Oct. 22. Robert M. Hutchins, chancellor of the University of Chicago, said tonight that the power and the happiness of America have already passed their Zenith, and that this country is substituting the idolatry of power for the idolatry of money-making. Claiming that moral education has failed in America, Hutchins said Americans were feeding the starving "not because all men are brothers . . . but so they will not vote the communist ticket."

LONDON, Oct. 22. Buckingham Palace announced tonight that Lt. Philip Mountbatten, who will marry Princess Elizabeth Nov. 20, was slightly injured in an automobile accident last night but was able to report for duty with the British navy today.
