

University Hour Presents Radio Plays Thursday

The radio adaptations of two of Edgar Allan Poe's eeriest mysteries, "A Cask of Amontillado" and "Fall of the House of Usher," will be aired over the University Hour radio program Thursday at 4 p.m. Broadcast from the University radio workshop over station KOAC, the mysteries will be directed by John MacDonald.

Cast as players in the radio mysteries will be Ken Lomax, Bob Litten, Mary Esther Brock, Paul Ryman, Dick Nelson, Bill Pickens, Warren Dobbin, John Tasnady, Bob Houghlum, and Virginia Avery, all of the radio workshop staff.

The "Something For You" program of popular music on Thursday's University Hour will feature Robin Gilbert, liberal arts sophomore, on the piano. Gilbert's selections will include "Man I Love," "Talk of the Town," "As Time Goes By," and "Music, Maestro, Please!" Gilbert will also join with the producer of the music program, Shirley Peters, in a series of skits between the songs.

Concluding the University Hour will be a wire-tape-recorded interview by Paul Ryman of a person of interest to the campus.

New Faces Make Convicts Honest

Plastic surgery is being used to help rehabilitate convicts at Illinois' Statesville Penitentiary, Joliet. Here an inmate poses to show how his nose was rebuilt, altering the sinister appearance he once had, inset. These operations have been performed since 1937 by Dr. John F. Pick, Chicago plastic surgeon. Warden Joseph E. Ragen, right, claims that parole violations dropped from 400 in 1000 to 9 in 1000 among those receiving surgery. Experts believe that facial incongruity drives many men to criminality.

Discussion Friday For Future Docs

Dr. E. S. West, admissions council chairman of the University of Oregon medical school will hold a question and answer period for all students interested in pre-medical work Friday at 7 p.m. in 207 Chapman.

This will be open for students who plan to apply this year or in the future to the medical school. Both pre-medical students and those not registered in pre-medical course are welcome. The discussion also will be of interest to pre-medical advisers.

Dahlberg, Litten Odeon Chairmen

Odeon magazine plans for the coming year will be discussed at a meeting today at 4 p.m. in 107 Friendly.

The magazine, started in 1942, will include original short plays, prose, poetry, short stories, modern

World Split

(Continued from page one)

pression hits, according to Adamic. The author believes that these vested interests propose Marshall Plans and Truman Doctrines; but clever brains and mediums of propoganda, and ever work toward a war that will wipe out Soviet Russia and Poland and Yugoslavia and the other countries working so zealously for the brotherhood of man.

Adamic said we have just a few years to beat the conspiracy against peace. "We must begin to act and reject this propoganda or we will have another war," he said.

"World War III is a certainty unless we act now. The issue today is war or peace, so let us begin at once to work for freedom and one world," he concluded.

dance selections and various forms of art works. The magazine goes to press at the end of winter term.

W. A. Dahlberg, professor of speech, will act as chairman, and Bob Litten, junior in liberal arts, will be student chairman.

Plaid for the College Clan
Kailes
APPAREL 1044 WIL.

CAMPUS CALENDAR

- 4 p.m.: AWS cabinet and congress meeting at Delta Gamma house.
- 6:15 p.m.: Married couples potluck at Westminster house. Coffee and rolls furnished.
- 7:30 p.m.: Scabbard and Blade meeting in ROTC building.
- 7:45 p.m.: Wave Reserve meeting 107 PE building.
- 8 p.m.: One World club meeting at YMCA. Far Eastern Policy will be discussed.

Ad Staff

- Ad Staff:
DAY MANAGER:
Sally Waller
LAYOUT STAFF:
Donna Babb
Carolanne Wall
Barbara Shultz
Ardath Cox
Kloh Ann Mayer
Donna Mary Brennan
George LaRoche
Loralee Warnock
Barbara Osburn
Barbara Beck
OFFICE STAFF:
Dana Lind
Margaret Gammil
Barbara Wheat
Phyllis Beach
Joan Barnes
SOLICITORS:
Joy Miller
Andy Moore
Jim Ivory

Varsity Service Station

13th and Hilyard Street
Eugene, Oregon

A QUART SERVES SIX

... and it's quick to fix!

MEDO-LAND
CREAMERY COMPANY

NEW COATS TO ORDER — Complete Restyling —

BUDGET TERMS

LAY-AWAY

MATTHEW'S FUR SHOP

The Master Furriers

111 West 7th Ave.

Phone 3567

"It's Fitting"

UPLIFT GOSSARD BRAS that give you young bosom lines, matchless freedom and comfort

PERFECT MOLDED HIPS—in a Gossard "Deb" girdle or panty girdle.

BRAS — $1.00 to $5.00

GIRDLES — $1.95 to $15.00

Eugene Gossard Shop

110 E. BROADWAY

Phone 1710

"When Shopping for Meat Try Elliott's Meat Market"

QUALITY MEATS AT REASONABLE PRICES

ELLIOTT'S

ONE-STOP GROCERY

13th & Patterson

Phone 95